Re: April 2024 Community Policing Report

- April Fools! – Our social media campaign and mission remains strong as we started the month with a collaboration with the Raritan Police Department. While the majority of our posts are informative and offer resources, this annual tradition gives us the ability to interact with the public in the online setting. In addition to the post about our merger that created the “Raritan Brook Police Department”, we informed our followers about our vehicle maintenance procedures and how we need to keep the “light bar fluid” topped off. This was one of our most engaged posts with over 80,000 unique views.
- Blue Mass – Sgt. Pikulin attended the Annual Blue Mass held at the Immaculate Conception Church in Somerville along with officers from around Somerset County. This event highlights the sacrifices officers make every day they come to work and celebrates their dedication to serving the community.
- Senior Citizens – Sgt. Pikulin attended the monthly senior citizen’s meeting where he was able to have dialogue with our senior community members.
- BBHS Driver’s Ed – Sgt. Pikulin partnered with the BBHS 10th grade Driver’s Education classes to provide lecture and demonstration to our up-and-coming drivers. Sgt. Pikulin attended 5 classes over two days and gave our future motorists insight as they begin driving. While the primary block of instruction and demonstrations revolved around DWI investigations, Sgt. Pikulin gave the kids advice on what to expect and how to interact with the police should they be pulled over.
- DARE Demo – Officer Silva took a break from the classroom and brought the fifth grade DARE students outside to check out our patrol vehicles alongside Sgt. Pikulin. It was a fun experience for the kids to be able to interact with Ofc. Silva outside of the classroom setting!

- NJSP Soccer Clinic – On Saturday the 20th, monthslong preparation came to fruition as we joined with the NJ State Police and the Somerset County Prosecutor's Office to host a free soccer clinic for kids age 5-11. The event was spearheaded by the Latino American Troopers Society and received the largest turnout from any event they have sponsored with 120 kids signed up. This event aligns directly with our mission to create a lasting positive relationship with our community. Volunteers from Bound Brook Recreation and the Bound Brook PTO helped to make this event one of the best we have ever been a part of.
- BBHS Senior Class – Sgt. Pikulin met with the entire BBHS senior class to discuss their participation in the annual event known as "Senior Assassin or Water Wars". Activities like this while fun for the kids involved, can quickly get out of hand and wreak havoc on a community. A positive dialogue was had and the students were given advice on how to best conduct themselves as they participated in the game.
- Take Your Child to Work Day – Captain Gianotto, K9 Crusader, Sgt. Pikulin, SRO Caramela and SRO Delesky took part in the 2024 Take Your Child to Work Day at BBHS. As always, K9 Crusader stole the show and was able to release some energy during a demonstration with Sgt. Pikulin's arm.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sergeant Robert Pikulin

BIG NEWS!

We have some exciting news to share with you. Today will be known in history as the Raritan River Merger.

Surrounded by members of the media at an undisclosed location, representatives of the Bound Brook Police Department and Raritan Borough Police Department gathered to announce the historic merger and the formation of The Raritan Brook Police Department. The merge was made official over a Dirty Dozen from Dunkin'!

One news agency asked, "How do you plan on traversing the distance between your two towns to cover calls?" "The answer is simple, we will be using high speed boats to traverse the mighty Raritan River."

Officers from each agency are also excited to explore each town's multi cultural food scene.

Each town will now experience community policing at its finest. Please check out our new police patch.

The merger does present several challenges. The biggest issue being that it's April Fools' Day! If you believed this, we set aside a private island for you in a warm body of water.

Disclaimer: The Raritan and Bound Brook Police Departments will not be merging. We also do not have an island set aside for you! Bound Brook Police Department
