Re: June 2024 Community Policing Report

- Cops VS Sprinters – Officers put on their running shoes for a day at the track with the BBHS Track and Field Team. Starting what we hope is an annual tradition, officers competed against the High Schoolers for some friendly 4x100 relays before taking to the field where we got lessons on throwing the javelin and shot put. The day was rounded out with pizza and presentation of the trophy (that we didn't win—this time!).
- DARE Graduation – DARE Officers Clyne and Silva along with Captain Gianotto and K9 Crusader sent off the 5th grade DARE class following their completion of the program. Plainfield PD joined up to show off their DARE Humvee and everyone enjoyed ice cream.
- Fitness Day – Fitness Day at Codrington Park - Sgt Pikulin, Sgt Waller, Officers Rodriguez, Silva and Whitley hosted a fitness station at the Family Fun and Fitness day at Codrington Park. They gave participants a glance at some Police Academy physical training exercises and had a chance to meet lots of new families.
- High School Graduation – Officers attended BBHS graduation where they took time to congratulate the outgoing seniors on their accomplishments and to send them off with well wishes for their futures. Ofc. Whitley who has forged strong relationships with the High School Students made sure to let them know we are ready for them to join the ranks of BBPD in the future!
- Senior Signing Day / Senior Awards – Ofc. Whitley went to support the High School senior class as many of them signed on with colleges to continue pursuing their athletic goals as they move on from High School.
- Visit from Alex Mann Police Department #497 – We were honored to have hosted Alex Mann, a 23-year old from Chester County, PA with Autism, as he marked us down as his 497th Police Department. Alex has made it his goal to visit as many police departments as possible to raise awareness about autism and show support for law enforcement officers. The day was full of fun as Det. Clyne outfitted Alex in a BBPD uniform before checking out Police Headquarters, our patrol fleet and meeting with many of our officers.
