Agreement with Parent / Guardian

This annual agreement is suggested for parishes and should be completed upon registration.

PARENT NAME _____

This letter outlines the expectations for your child's participation in the Parish Religious Education Program. Consistent attendance is essential to the spiritual and sacramental development of each student. By signing this agreement, you acknowledge and agree to the following:

1. Attendance Requirement: We understand that occasional absences will happen. However, it is essential that the students do not miss many classes. It is also our expectation that the family will attend Mass weekly, on Holy Days of Obligations, and for training and / or Sacramental events.
2. Make-Up Policy: If your child misses too many classes during the program, you are responsible for ensuring that the class is made up in a timely manner, as scheduled by our team.
3. Communication: You agree to notify the team in advance of any absences and to coordinate prompt participation in a make-up class.
4. Student Behavior: Each student and parent must read and complete the Code Christian Conduct for Students

It is the expectation of our Parish that this policy is followed faithfully by each family and student. In cases where this agreement is not followed, student(s) will be required to repeat their current and may result in a delay in receiving the Sacraments. I appreciate your commitment to your child's faith formation and to our parish community. Together, we can provide the strong religious foundation that they need! Please sign and return this document with your registration form.

I have read and understand the attendance and make-up policy for Religious Education Program. I agree to ensure that my child(ren) will complete any missed coursework and events as well as attending the Celebration of the Eucharist (Mass) as required.

Code Christian Behavior for Students

This code indicates the expected behavior in classrooms, program, and special events and should be reviewed with all. My example should be like Jesus in the following ways:

Jesus was a teacher; the disciples were his students. Jesus taught the disciples that each of them was a reflection of God, the Father, even when they disagreed with one another. So, the disciples not only learned from Jesus, but learned from one another as well.

- In the class as well as at home, I will be respectful of adults and other young people with whom I interact.

Jesus never told a parable or a story to the crowds without praying for long hours first. It was important for the Son of God to prepare for each day and each activity so he would be sure to say and do the right thing.

- I will prepare for religious education by reading the assignment and participating in class.

Jesus never told people to do something that He Himself was not willing to do. He lived the kind of life that made His Father, who was God, proud of Him.

- I will be an example in the classroom and at home to those who would want to know what Jesus would do in a particular situation.

Jesus told people things that often made them uncomfortable, even though these things were the truth. For example, He said if the things you owned were more important than the people around you, you could not enter Heaven.

- I will tell my friends the truth when they do things that Jesus would not have done, especially if they try and get me to do something that is wrong. I am a child of God, who is destined for Heaven.

Jesus taught us that sacrifice is a part of Christian living. Jesus made the greatest sacrifice of all when He gave His life for us.

- I will go gladly to Church even when I want to stay home; I will take care of the responsibilities I have around the house or in the classroom willingly; I will share the things I treasure most with others who are less fortunate.

Jesus is the Way, the Life, and the Truth. He guides me in everything I do and say. As I become closer to Jesus, it will be easier to think and say and do things exactly the way Jesus would want me to.

- I will learn all that my teacher and the other students in my program have to teach me about Jesus, so that I can become closer to God in His Kingdom here on earth and later in Heaven.
