January 11, 2026 The Baptism of Our Lord Baptized Stewards

“John tried to prevent him, saying, “I need to be baptized by you, yet you are coming to me?””
MATTHEW 3:14

The Catholic Catechism states that “Jesus’ immersion in the water is a sign for all human beings of the need to die to themselves to do God’s will.” In other words, as baptized Catholic Stewards there is only one gift that we need to give to Jesus – the gift of ourselves. Surrender yourself to God, place your trust in Him and allow the Holy Spirit to work through you for the greater glory of God

Weekly Prayers of the Faithful -That we show generous Stewardship with all of our gifts, especially the one thing that means the most to us.
Let us pray to the Lord.

HEALING MASS -10AM CORPUS CHRISTI LAST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH

[CC]

BAPTISM OF THE LORD

The Baptism of the Lord commemorates the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist in the Jordan River, marking the beginning of His public ministry and the revelation of the Holy Trinity.

Significance of the Baptism

The Baptism of the Lord is a pivotal event in the Christian faith, symbolizing Jesus' identification with humanity and His mission to redeem it. According to the Gospels, Jesus was baptized by John the Baptist in the Jordan River, where the heavens opened, and the Holy Spirit descended upon Him like a dove. This moment signifies the manifestation of Jesus as the Son of God and the beginning of His public ministry.

Liturgical Celebration

The Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated in various Christian traditions. In the Roman Catholic Church, it is observed on the Sunday after the Epiphany, marking the conclusion of the Christmas season.

Celebration in the Eastern Christian Churches

In the Eastern Orthodox and the Eastern Catholic Churches, the Baptism of the Lord is celebrated as an integral part of the celebration on January 6, the Great Feast of the Theophany. For those churches which follow the traditional Julian calendar, January 6 falls on January 19 of the modern Gregorian calendar.

Celebration in the Western Christian Churches

The Baptism of the Lord is observed as a distinct feast in the Roman rite, although it was originally one of three Gospel events marked by the feast of the Epiphany. Long after the visit of the Magi had in the West overshadowed the other elements commemorated in the Epiphany. Pope Pius XII instituted in 1955 a separate liturgical commemoration of the Baptism.

Currently, the Feast of the Baptism of the Lord is usually celebrated the Sunday after Epiphany. The exception is when Epiphany is observed on January 7th or 8th; this causes the Baptism to be celebrated on the Monday immediately following Epiphany. When celebrated on Sunday, the Baptism is part of Christmas Time, but when displaced to Monday, it falls in Ordinary Time.

Thank you for your support!
