Stewards Imitate

"...Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us."

2 THESSALONIANS 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results and others desire this in their own life. Know that the Stewardship way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.

Weekly Prayers of the Faithful

That the joy and peace Christian Stewards have in our lives may encourage others to grow in their faith.
Let us pray to the Lord.

HEALING MASS -10AM CORPUS CHRISTI LAST SUNDAY OF EACH MONTH

[CC] Aunt Lena & Uncle Frank/
George & Ceil Kehnast

THE PRESENTATION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY, is a liturgical feast celebrated on November 21 by the Catholic, Eastern Orthodox, and some Anglo-Catholic Churches.

The feast is associated with an event recounted not in the New Testament, but in the apocryphal Protoevangelium of James. According to that text, Mary's parents, Joachim and Anne, who had been childless, received a heavenly message that they would have a child. In thanksgiving for the gift of their daughter, they brought her, when still a child, to the Temple in Jerusalem to consecrate her to God. Later versions of the story (such as the Gospel of Pseudo-Matthew and the Gospel of the Nativity of Mary) indicate that Mary was taken to the Temple at around the age of three in fulfillment of a vow. Tradition held that she was to remain there to be educated in preparation for her role as Mother of God.

The account of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the Temple is principally based on the Protoevangelium of James, which has been dated by historians prior to the year 200 AD. The story relates that in thanksgiving for the birth of their daughter Mary, Joachim and Anne decide to consecrate her to God, and bring her, at the age of three years, to the temple in Jerusalem. Mary's presentation in the temple draws parallels to that of the prophet Samuel, whose mother Hannah, like Anne, was also thought to be barren, and who offered her child as a gift to God at Shiloh. Mary remained in the Temple until her twelfth year, at which point Joseph was assigned to be her guardian. According to Coptic tradition, her father Joachim died when Mary was six years old and her mother when Mary was eight.

The feast originated as a result of the dedication of the New Church of the Theotokos, built in 543 by the Byzantines under Emperor Justinian I near the site of the ruined Temple in Jerusalem. This basilica was destroyed by the Sasanian Persians under Khosrow II after the Siege of Jerusalem (614).

The feast continued to be celebrated throughout the East, was celebrated in the monasteries of Southern Italy by the ninth century, and was introduced into the Papal Chapel in Avignon in 1372 by decree of Pope Gregory XI. As a result, it did not appear in the Tridentine calendar. Pope Sixtus V reintroduced it into the Roman calendar in 1585.^[7] Pope Clement VIII made this feast a greater double in 1597.^[5] The feast also continued as a memorial in the Roman calendar of 1969.

For the Roman Catholic Church, on the day of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we celebrate that dedication of herself which Mary made to God from her very childhood under the inspiration of the Holy Spirit who filled her with grace. The three feasts of the Birthday of Our Lady, the Holy Name of Mary, and her Presentation in the Temple correspond in the Marian cycle with the first three feasts of the cycle of feasts of Jesus: namely, Christmas, the Holy Name of Jesus, and His Presentation at the Temple. November 21 is also a day of prayer for cloistered religious "totally dedicated to God in prayer, silence, and concealment".

Thank you for your support!

Note: St. Gabriel Fiscal Year is 7/1/25 to 6/30/26. These weekly collections and corresponding budget reflect our "Ordinary Offertory" (first collection at weekend masses, associated electronic and mail-in donations). They do not include other collections such as Christmas, Easter, Holy days and Improvement Fund. Those amounts and their budgets will be reported separately.

OFFICE CLOSURES

Due to the Thanksgiving Holiday, the Parish Office will be closed on Thursday, November 27 and 28. The office will open on Monday, December 1 at 9AM.

Thanksgiving is a federal holiday in the United States celebrated on the fourth Thursday of November. The earliest Thanksgiving can occur on November 22; the latest November 28. The modern national celebration dates to 1863; prior to this, it was a regional holiday, whose origins lie in the 17th and 18th century days of thanksgiving of Calvinist New England.

The Office will also be closed on Monday, December 8, 2025 due to the Immaculate Consumption. Holy Day Masses are shown above.

PARISH LIBRARY

Let us entertain you!

School is a challenge, especially when your child is one with special needs or has a classmate who is a "little different". Perhaps the child in your life just needs some encouragement in their new or first year of school. Meeting new friends with all the new challenges is part of your child's education. We may have just the ticket for you in the Msgr. Graham Library. Three new books in the children's section are perfect reading for the youngest student: "The Boy with Special Powers", "The Forgotten Strawberry" and "Marvin Monkey's Dream Comes True", as well as several others.

In the teen/tween section peruse "Strategies for Teens", "Chicken Soup for the Teenage Soul" and "The O'Reilly Factor for Kids" as well as others.

In the medical section, you will find "Parenting for Prevention", "Discipline Without Fear", "She Calls Me Daddy" and "Active Parenting" and many other helpful volumes.

SAINT MARY'S CEMETERY GRIEVES PARKWAY, SALEM, NJ

If you and your family members are contemplating purchasing cemetery plots, why not consider St. Mary's Cemetery. It is a part of St. Gabriel the Archangel Parish.

It is a lovely place and people need not be Catholic. There is a special price for Parishioners of St. Gabriel. Prices are subject to change so they are not included in this information at this time. There are Sections A thru F. If you know where the cemetery is located, please stop by and look around. You may see a location where you would want to purchase plots. One [1] plot could be purchased and hold two [2] cremation urns; otherwise 2 plots are needed for 2 full burials.

Charles Hassler, Parishioner, oversees the cemetery and welcomes parishioners to visit and choose a location for their final resting place.

If and when you are interested, please call the office at 856-299-3833, extension 307 or ask for Janet and leave a message.

Thank you, Janet M. Blose, Office Assistant
