September 7, 2025 - 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time Live Stewardship

"Every one of you who does not renounce all his possessions cannot be my disciple." LUKE 14:33

When we first hear this statement, it seems that Jesus is making an unrealistic demand upon us. How can we renounce all of our possessions? We need them to live. However, what we must renounce is the belief that they belong to us. Everything that we have belongs to God alone. All of our resources are entrusted to us not only for our own use, but also so that we in Stewardship can help others. Once we renounce the idea that we possess or are entitled to anything, it is much easier to share the many gifts that God has given us. Then we truly are His Disciples.

Weekly Prayers of the Faithful

That we may come to recognize that everything we have is a gift from God and we are called as Stewards to generously share all of our gifts. Let us pray to the Lord.

GRANDPARENTS DAY

The spiritual meaning of Grandparents Day is deeply rooted in the belief that grandparents are a powerful spiritual force in their families. They symbolize the importance of family bonds and the interconnectedness of multiple generations. This day is celebrated the first Sunday in September.

Grandparents serve as a bridge between the past, present, and future, carrying the legacy of their ancestors and passing it down to their grandchildren. They symbolize the true meaning of unconditional love, providing a safe haven for their grandchildren, offering support and understanding without any judgment.

Grandparents often shower their grandchildren with affection and care, creating a deep emotional bond that is rooted in love and acceptance. Their role as mentors, caregivers, and trusted confidants helps shape their grandchildren's identity and character by sharing life experiences and lessons, passing on family traditions, and instilling important values.

As we explore the spiritual meanings of grandparents, we can recognize their role as guardians of wisdom and connectors of generations. They provide much love and lessons that shape our identities and values. Their stories often hold keys to understanding our family's history and steering through life's challenges. By examining these connections, we might uncover insights that resonate deeply within us. Let's consider the profound impact grandparents have on our lives and the legacies they leave behind.

- They teach us age-old recipes that bring warmth and comfort.
- They share tales of resilience and love that inspire our lives.
- They guide us through annual celebrations that unite us as a family.
- They pass on values and lessons that last through generations.

Thank you for your support!

These weekly collections and corresponding budget reflect our "Ordinary Offertory" (first collection at weekend masses, associated electronic and mail-in donations). los efectos que tiene la Misa son purificadores y de reparación, esto lo encontramos en el mismo Catecismo: "En cuanto sacrificio, la Eucaristía es ofrecida también en reparación de los pecados de los vivos y los difuntos, y para obtener de Dios beneficios espirituales o temporales" (CEC 1414).

DE JESUS EUCARISTIA

Los reparadores de Jesús en la Eucaristía son aquellos que, a través de la adoración, la oración y la acción de reparación, buscan compensar los insultos y sacrilegios que se cometen contra la presencia real de Cristo en la Eucaristía. La Eucaristía, donde el pan y el vino se convierten en el Cuerpo y la Sangre de Cristo, es un acto de amor y sacrificio de Dios.

El grupo consiste en regalarle una hora a nuestro Señor Jesucristo, cada miembro pasa una hora de su tiempo dentro de la capilla, orando en reparación por todos los ultrajes, sacrilegios e indiferencias con el que El mismo es ofendido.

Para mas información favor de llamar a la Sra. Aneline Ayala (302) 743-4653 o a la Sra. Dilia (856) 212-7939.
