HISTORY IN SMITHVILLE

Our Smithville location has taken some co-op history that was lying around the warehouse and turned it into a display for employees and customers to enjoy and reminisce. For a long time there have been old co-op, field and product signs at Smithville. Several years ago Joe Wilson mentioned wanting to gather the signs and hang them inside the warehouse. Recently, Tim Gresser and some fellow employees had a little extra time and decided to collect and hang them. It is so nice to see the smiles and hear the stories of those that remember “the good ol’ days” or were part of our history. Tim personally remembers coming into AGRI-MARK as a young boy. His family did business with Landmark, Rutt and Amstutz, AGRI-MARK, Town & Country and continues to do business with Centerra. We are still searching for a few signs that would make the collection more complete. If you have a sign you'd like to donate, contact Smithville at 330-669-2801.

BUSY DAY IN WAYNE COUNTY

On July 15, the Wayne-Ashland Dairy Service Unit's annual Twilight Dairy Tour celebrated the Dairy Industry with a Summit and tour. The event was held at ZidoValley Dairy in Wooster, OH. Centerra was a proud sponsor and employees and interns had the opportunity to chat with attendees. Earlier in the day, Centerra employees Jean Bratton, Joe Wilson and Jen Warden met with representatives from Wayne Economic Development Council, Team NEO and Jobs Ohio at our Smithville branch to discuss Centerra's role in Wayne County's agribusiness industry.
