Dear Raymond CRC Church, on behalf of our family, I want to extend our deepest gratitude for your kindness in hosting the visitation service for Jim and Bea Harms. Though it has been many years since they moved away, your willingness to serve our family in this time of need speaks volumes of your compassion and generosity. It was a pleasure to see so many friends again. Thank you for arranging the facilities, coordinating the schedule, and making the space welcoming and respectful. Thank you specifically to Lori Roelofs for coordinating the efforts and helping in countless unseen ways. Everyone's efforts are truly appreciated. Jim and Bea both loved the Raymond CRC Church. We are grateful to call this faith community part of our extended circle, even after long years apart. May God bless you all richly for your kindness.

With sincerest thanks and appreciation, Todd Harms & Family

Thanks to all for your care, love, and prayers to Betty and myself through our difficult times at the Clara City Care Center, hospice, and at home. Betty's passing into glory. Thanks to the congregation for their love.
