Lynn & Mavis Zimmer thank our congregation for their prayers for our son Dan in his accident. He is back working part time as he continues to heal. Thanks again.

Thank you for all the prayers for these last three months. We truly appreciate our church family. The many cards, phone calls, visits, and food brought to us. Pastor Tony also for taking the time to visit. Oh, and for the lovely white rose, Merle brought home for me from the church on Mother's Day. Sat., May 23rd it was still full and alive.

Friendship Bible Ministries thanks all who touched our Friendship Students this past year! Mentors who connected with their student, Lesson leaders, music directors, IT operators, cookies bakers, Board directors, and all who participated with prayer and funds throughout the year. We concluded our year with a banquet and a special thank-you to the Young People and leaders who served us. It was enjoyed by all. As we worshiped and prayed together, we also grieved together at the loss of some of our Friends and housemates this year. We look forward to meeting again in September. We welcome anyone who would join us in this hour of service. With much appreciation, The Board.
