John 14:1-3 – Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house there are many rooms. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also.

This July I was blessed to take a trip back to my home province of Newfoundland. It's hard to explain, the overwhelming feeling that comes when I go back to "the Rock". It is one of pure joy. I'm home. I think many of you can relate. Maybe you've taken a journey and while you were excited to go, you still look forward to getting home. We somehow need to know that at the end of the road there is a place where we can belong, a place we can call home.

The Christian life is like that. Feeling at home in the presence of God is a profound experience that many Christians seek. It is a sanctuary for our hearts. It is often described as a sense of comfort, security, and belonging. This feeling can be found in various ways, such as through prayer, scripture reading, and community gatherings. It is a reminder that God is not just a distant figure but a comforting presence that surrounds us with love and peace.

"He who dwells in the secret place of the Most- High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty." – Psalms 91:1

In God, we are connected to one another, supporting, and uplifting each other. This sense of belonging is crucial for our spiritual journey. God's home is not just about individual closeness; it's about coming together in unity and love, reminding us that we are never alone. We have each other and, most importantly, we have God. In this family, we can find encouragement, joy, and the strength to face life's challenges together, knowing that we belong to something greater than ourselves. We are HOME.

Colossians 3:14, Above all, clothe yourselves with love, which binds us all together in perfect harmony.
