Major Donna

In November we received our first snowfall. Sometimes I can get discouraged when the snow comes too early. However, the first snowfall can be a powerful reminder of God's grace and the beauty of His creation. It can serve as a symbol of purification, preparation, and renewal, encouraging us to reflect on our lives and seek a deeper connection with God. Here are some ways reflecting on the snow can strengthen our faith:

Pray for God's guidance: As the snow falls, ask God for clarity and seek direction in your life.

Reflect on God's promises: Consider how God's promises of forgiveness and hope are reflected in the beauty of the snow.

Seek renewal: Use the snow as a metaphor for the renewal and transformation that God desires in your life.

Embrace stillness: Take time to sit still and listen to the stillness of the snowfall, inviting God's presence into your heart.

Celebrate God's creation: Acknowledge the beauty of the snow and how it mirrors God's creation and His work in the world.

These practices can help us find solace and peace in the face of winter's challenges, reminding us of the comfort and strength that comes from knowing we are loved and cared for by a loving God.

We have a long winter ahead, let's embrace it and Find joy in all of God's creation.

Even that white stuff!

Psalms 147:16

He sends the snow like white
wool;
he scatters
frost upon the ground like ashes.
