From the Pastor's desk....

This coming Tuesday, September 30, the pastoral letter from Bishop Hicks will be released to the Diocese. It is entitled "Make". Some years ago, Bishop Conlon had a pastoral letter titled "Go". We remember in scripture Jesus says "Go, and Make disciples of all the nations". The call to evangelization and discipleship is in this pastoral letter. It was introduced to us at the Convocation we recently had. The letter is about a 15-minute read, and is explaining the call to evangelize. So many people do not know who Jesus is. We, the baptized and blessed, know the Lord. Now, we are being called to share Jesus with others.

One of the statistics presented to us, was the growing number of people who are churchless—the "un-churched", if you will. This number now exceeds the number of people who have fallen away from their mainline, Christian church. This includes Catholics, Lutherans, Methodist, etc. Evangelization, and this pastoral letter, will be with us for awhile. I encourage you to read it, and to think how you as a person of faith are called to spread the Good News. Often times, this is done in small, but powerful ways.

The best way for us to begin, is to deepen our personal relationship with Jesus. Then, let Him guide us as we live our life. Christ is our Light; and we are also the Light of Christ in a dark world.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

CCW Celebrates a Living Rosary Sunday, October 5

October is a sacred time in our Church calendar – a month lovingly dedicated to the Most Holy Rosary. This devotion, deeply rooted in our Catholic tradition, invites us to reflect on the life of Christ through the eyes of His Blessed Mother. As Pope Leo XIII once wrote, the Rosary is “the most excellent form of prayer and the most efficacious means of attaining eternal life.” In this spirit, CCW encourages all parishioners to renew their devotion to the Rosary in October – whether through personal prayer, family gatherings, or joining us for communal recitation. The Rosary is prayed daily, Monday through Friday, following the 8:30 Mass in church. All are welcome to attend and lift their hearts in prayer for peace, healing, and unity.

If you have already pledged your support to the Catholic Ministries Annual Appeal (CMAA), we sincerely thank you!

Let's join together to meet our parish's goal of $58,600. Each and every gift, regardless of size, truly makes a difference.

If you still plan on making your gift, please prayerfully reflect on how best you can Open your heart to God's goodness in support of those in need throughout our diocese. Pledge envelopes are still available in the church, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org. Remember, if we raise more than our goal, the diocese will return 70% of the amount over our goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!
