From the Pastor's desk....

The month of October is moving along, and in less than a month now, we will be concluding the liturgical year with the feast of Christ the King—and then we begin a new year with the first Sunday of Advent. I encourage you to pay attention to the changing seasons outdoors as well as the different liturgical seasons that the church celebrates. This all helps us to see the presence of a living, moving, active God. He always hears our prayers and is present to us.

We have recently had readings about mission work. The early church was able to grow because people had faith that was on fire. Because of that, the stories of Jesus were shared with one another, Eucharist slowly took shape, and the church was on its way. Today, we might take some of that for granted. The early church was not easy, and yet it has endured now for over 2,000 years! How might you, in your daily life, with the regular activities that you take on, be an example of Christ to others? Mission work is ongoing. I encourage you to look at the blessings you have been given. What makes you unique? How has God blessed you? How might you share His presence with others?

Please remember your Catholic faith is important. When your parents brought you to church as a baby to be baptized, it was their desire that you experience God, his son, Jesus, and the power of the Holy Spirit in your life. Every day is a fresh start for renewing your personal relationship with God. He is there for you. He loves you and cares about you immensely.

Peace.....Fr. Jeff

What is the Legion of Mary?

It is not enough to have the Faith, you must share it.

~ St John Paul II

The Legion of Mary is an association of Catholics, men and women and aims to sanctify its members by a balanced program of prayer and service in a family atmosphere, meeting the spiritual needs of the parish community. The Legion is an extension of the heart and hands of the parish priest.

Every time legionaries come together for a meeting it is as if they are gathered at the cenacle with Our Lady, as in the days of the first apostles. Every Legion meeting becomes the upper room where modern-day apostles gather together in a cenacle of prayer with Mary, asking the Holy Spirit to come upon them so that they can do great things for the glory of God and the salvation of souls.

There are hundreds of thousands of Legionaries all over the world; we are a small but willing part. We meet at Sacred Heart Church in Lombard every Wednesday morning at 9:30am in the Parish Center. For further information contact: Maura Gonzalo 331-551-3716 or Jim Selimos 630-220-1472.

Calling All Bakers

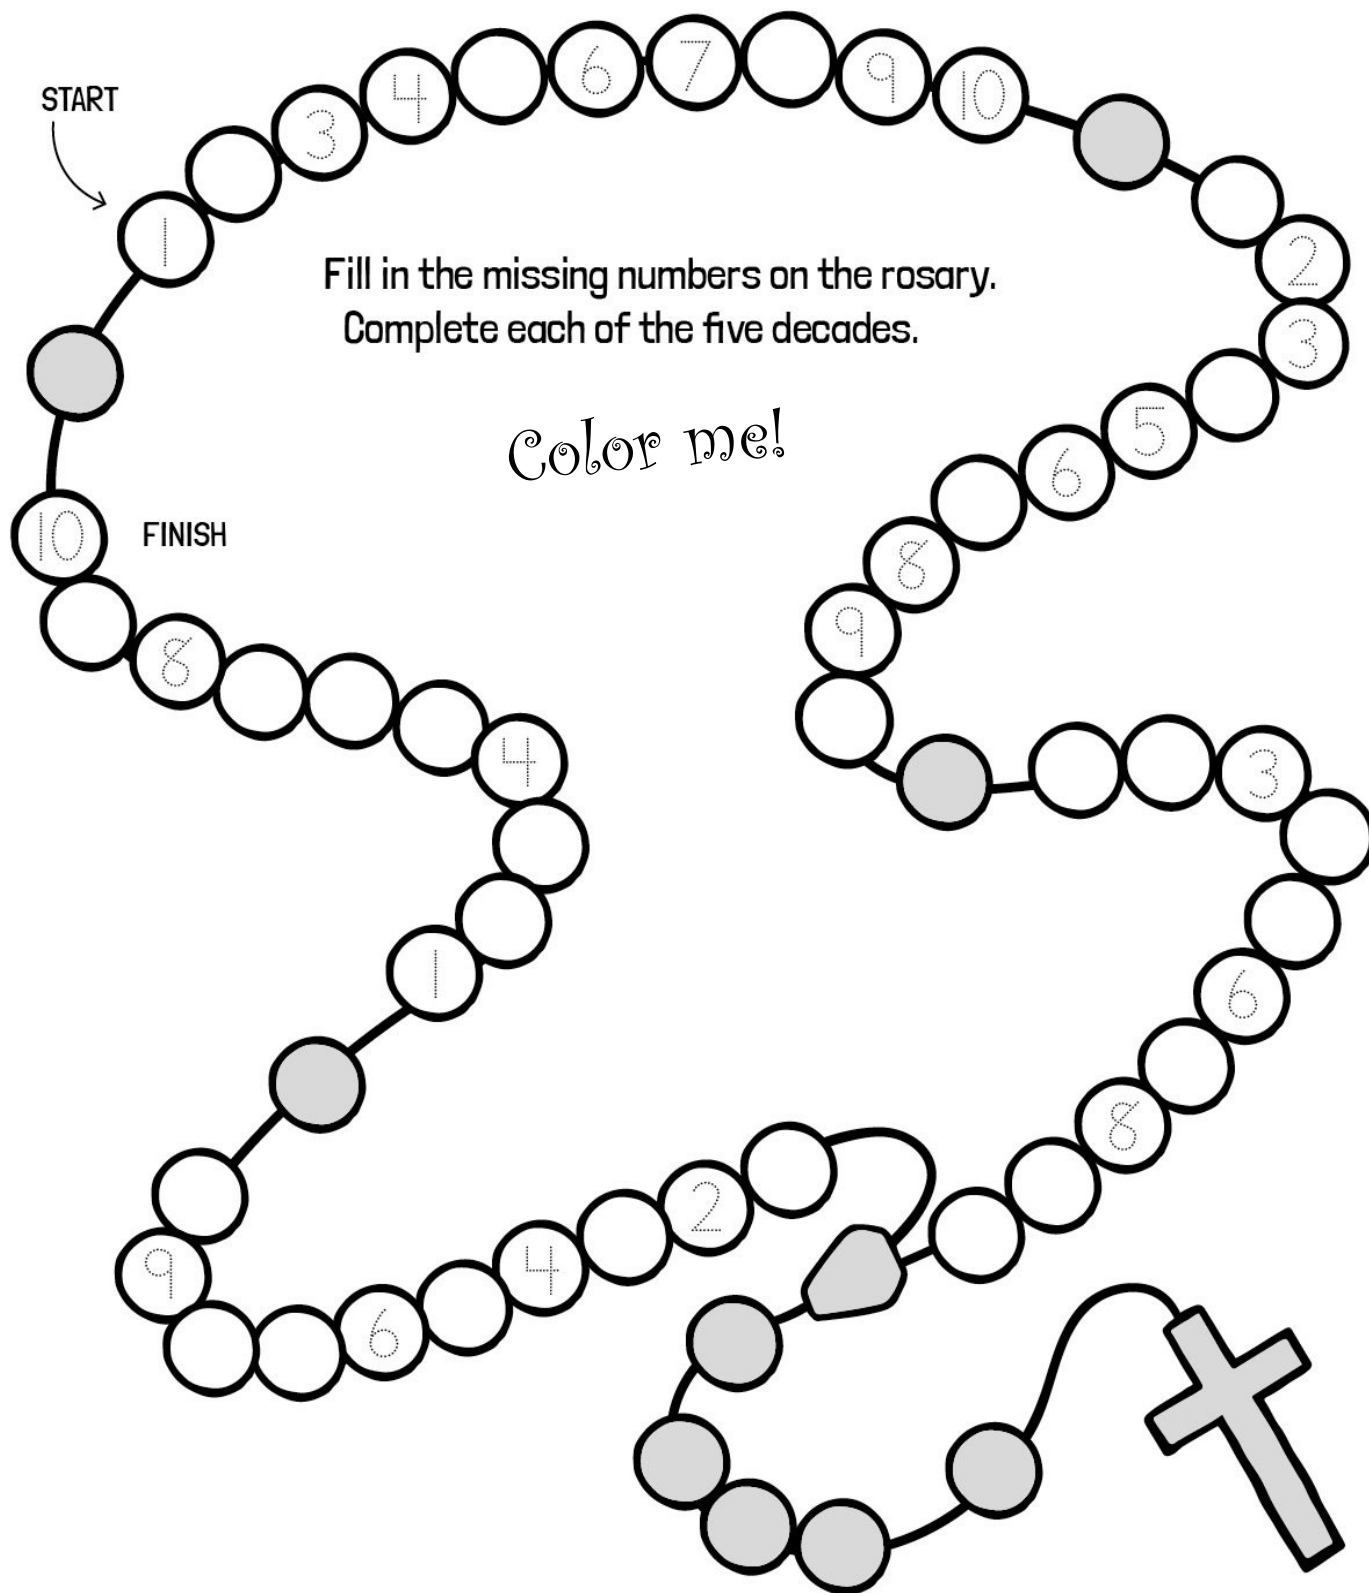

CCW's Annual Bake Sale November 21 and 22

CCW welcomes baked donations from everyone in the parish family. Whether you're a seasoned pie artist or someone whose smoke detector doubles as a kitchen timer, we'd love your donations. Please drop off your goodies in throwaway containers at the PLC after 1 o'clock on Saturday, November 21, and before all Masses on November 22. Please label anything containing nuts.

Scripture tells us that man does not live by bread alone. CCW took that to heart and decided he should also have brownies, lemon bars, pound cake, and at least three kinds of cookies.
