Group Class Expectations

Students are expected to work on their group assignments at home in addition to private lesson practice. Parents/guardians are responsible for making sure group assignments are included in home practice from week to week.

Parents/guardians are expected to remain in the classroom during group class.

Arrivals

Please arrive 5 to 10 minutes prior to each group class to account for parking and unpacking time.

-Twinkle class students may unpack in their group classroom.

-All other group class students: please unpack your instruments in the hallway, and wait until your group class start time to enter the classroom.

Attendance

Attendance is key to making group class a successful experience for all students. Students are allowed up to 2 group activity absences per semester. Any absences beyond this limit may affect your child's ability to perform in LSS concerts and events.

Please reach out to us at lakewoodsuzukistrings@gmail.com if your family has an extenuating circumstance during the semester that will necessitate more absences than the limit given above.

If your child must miss a class, please notify your group teacher via text or email.
