YOUR PRIVACY MATTERS

HOW WE PROTECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

At Community Culture, we respect your privacy and are committed to protecting your personal and sensitive information.

We only collect the information we need to deliver quality, person-centred services—and we handle it with care, confidentiality and transparency.

WHAT WE COLLECT

We may collect information like:

- Your name, address, date of birth, and contact details
- Health or disability-related information
- Emergency contacts
- Services you receive from us
- Feedback, complaints or compliments you provide

HOW WE COLLECT YOUR INFORMATION

We may collect information:

- Directly from you (in person, by phone, or online)
- From your authorised representative (with consent)
- From health or other service providers (when relevant and lawful)
- Through referral systems such as My Aged Care or the NDIS portal

WHY WE COLLECT IT

We collect your information so we can:

- Deliver the services you request
- Meet our obligations under government funding contracts
- Ensure your safety and wellbeing
- Comply with the law
