Gospel Reflection

Luke 5:1-11

Last Sunday, we heard how Jesus was rejected in his hometown of Nazareth. In the verses that follow, Jesus travels to the town of Capernaum and begins his ministry of teaching and healing. While in Capernaum, Jesus cures a man possessed with a demon and heals Simon's mother-in-law. After spending some time there, Jesus prepares to preach in other places. The fact that Jesus had previously been in Simon's home and healed his mother-in-law suggests that this encounter is not the first between Jesus and Simon Peter. We can read today's Gospel, therefore, as a description of the developing relationship between Jesus and Simon Peter.

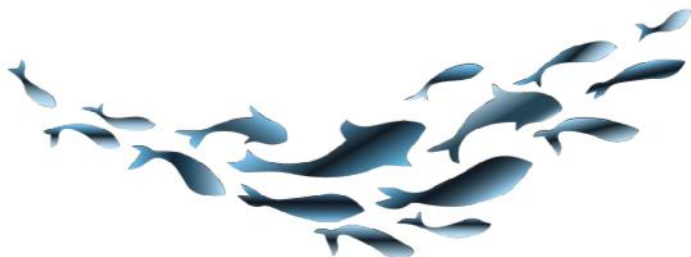

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches from Simon's boat. Jesus turns to Simon and instructs him about where to lower the fishing nets. Simon and others have been fishing throughout the night and have not caught anything. Simon protests, claiming that such an effort would be futile. Simon ultimately obeys Jesus and lowers his nets into the deeper water as directed. Notice here that Peter calls Jesus by the title "master." He already recognizes Jesus as a person of authority. They catch so many fish that the nets begin to tear; Jesus' presence has created abundance out of scarcity, just as it did at the wedding feast at Cana, which we heard at Mass just a few weeks ago.

Simon Peter becomes a follower of Jesus immediately. He calls Jesus "Lord"—the title given to Jesus after his Resurrection—and protests his worthiness to be in Jesus' presence. Today's Gospel, therefore, marks a turning point in the relationship between Jesus and Peter.

Two of Simon's partners are also named as witnesses to the event described in today's Gospel: Zebedee's sons, James and John. Yet Jesus' words are addressed only to Simon. Jesus gives Simon a new job, telling him that he will become a different kind of fisherman. No longer will he catch fish; instead he will catch people. In these words, we hear the beginning of the leadership role that Peter will have within the community of disciples. Peter was chosen for this role. His task will be to bring others to Jesus. Already he is doing so; the Gospel tells us that all the fishermen with Peter also left their nets and followed Jesus.

We continue to speak of Peter's leadership and influence in the Church today when we call the pope the "successor of Peter." We participate in the mission of the Church when we bring people to Christ through the example and positive influence of our lives.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Lucas 5, 1-11

El domingo pasado, escuchamos cómo Jesús fue rechazado en su ciudad natal de Nazaret. En los versículos que siguen, Jesús viaja a la ciudad de Capernaúm y comienza su ministerio de enseñanza y sanación. Mientras está en Capernaúm, Jesús cura a un hombre poseído por un demonio y sana a la suegra de Simón. Después de pasar algún tiempo allí, Jesús se prepara para predicar en otros lugares. El hecho de que Jesús hubiera estado previamente en la casa de Simón y sanado a su suegra sugiere que este encuentro no es el primero entre Jesús y Simón Pedro. Por lo tanto, podemos leer el Evangelio de hoy como una descripción de la relación que se desarrolla entre Jesús y Simón Pedro.

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús enseña desde la barca de Simón. Jesús se vuelve hacia Simón y le indica dónde echar las redes de pesca. Simón y otros han estado pescando durante toda la noche y no han atrapado nada. Simón protesta, alegando que tal esfuerzo sería inútil. Simón finalmente obedece a Jesús y baja sus redes a aguas más profundas como le indicó. Aquí se observa que Pedro llama a Jesús por el título de "maestro". Simón ya reconoce a Jesús como una persona de autoridad. Pescan tantos peces que las redes comienzan a romperse; la presencia de Jesús ha creado abundancia de la escasez, tal como sucedió en la fiesta de bodas de Caná, que escuchamos en la misa hace apenas unas semanas atrás.

Simón Pedro se convierte inmediatamente en un seguidor de Jesús. Llama a Jesús "Señor" —el título dado a Jesús después de su Resurrección— y protesta por su dignidad para estar en la presencia de Jesús. El Evangelio de hoy, por lo tanto, marca un punto de inflexión en la relación entre Jesús y Pedro.

Dos de los socios de Simón también son nombrados como testigos del evento descrito en el Evangelio de hoy: los hijos de Zebedeo, Santiago y Juan. Sin embargo, las palabras de Jesús se dirigen solo a Simón. Jesús le da a Simón un nuevo trabajo, diciéndole que se convertirá en un tipo diferente de pescador. Ya no pescará peces, sino que pescará hombres. En estas palabras, escuchamos el comienzo del papel de liderazgo que Pedro tendrá dentro de la comunidad de discípulos. Pedro fue elegido para este papel. Su tarea será llevar a otros a Jesús. Ya lo está haciendo; el Evangelio nos dice que todos los pescadores que estaban con Pedro también dejaron sus redes y siguieron a Jesús.

Seguimos hablando del liderazgo y la influencia de Pedro en la Iglesia de hoy cuando llamamos al Papa el "sucesor de Pedro". Participamos en la misión de la Iglesia cuando llevamos a las personas a Cristo mediante el ejemplo y la influencia positiva de nuestras vidas.

Donación Planificada

En un espíritu de confianza y compromiso, estamos llamados a considerar el futuro de nuestra Iglesia y el legado que deseamos dejar. Las donaciones planificadas son una poderosa forma de asegurar que la misión de la Iglesia continúe floreciendo para las generaciones venideras. Es una forma de ofrecer nuestros dones a Dios, confiando en que se utilizarán para fortalecer nuestros ministerios, apoyar la educación de las generaciones futuras y atender a los necesitados.

Si desea más información, no dude en ponerse en contacto con nosotros hoy mismo a través de la siguiente dirección de correo electrónico kblanco@theadom.org o llamarnos al 305-762-1053.

Mayordomía

En este Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario, el Evangelio nos recuerda nuestra llamada a ser «sal de la tierra» y «luz del mundo». Jesús nos invita a vivir de modo que nuestras vidas reflejen su amor y lleven esperanza a los demás. Como administradores de los abundantes dones de Dios, estamos llamados no sólo a apreciar estas bendiciones, sino también a compartirlas generosamente con los demás, ayudando a construir su Reino aquí en la tierra.

“Entonces oí la voz del Señor que decía: ¿A quién enviaré, y quién irá por nosotros? Y yo respondí: Heme aquí, envíame a mí.” - ISAÍAS 6:8

Cada día, en pequeñas y grandes maneras, Dios pregunta “¿A quién enviaré?”, bien sea alguien que toma un nuevo ministerio, que da una sonrisa amable a un extranjero o dice una palabra de consuelo a un amigo, Dios nos provee constantemente de oportunidades para ayudar a los necesitados. Dios nos habla constantemente: solo necesitamos poner más atención. Cuando usted escucha el llamado de Dios tiene el coraje de caminar a través de la puerta y decir “Aquí estoy Señor.”

Planned Giving

In the spirit of trust and commitment, we are called to consider the future of our Church and the legacy we wish to leave. Planned giving is a powerful way to ensure that the mission of the Church continues to flourish for generations to come. It is a way of offering our gifts to God, trusting that they will be used to strengthen our ministries, support the education of future generations, and care for those in need.

To learn more please feel free to contact us today via email at kblanco@theadom.org or call us at 305-762-1053.

Stewardship

On this Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time, the Gospel reminds us of our call to be the "salt of the earth" and the "light of the world." Jesus invites us to live so that our lives reflect His love and bring hope to others. As stewards of God's abundant gifts, we are called not only to cherish these blessings but also to share them generously with others, helping to build His Kingdom here on earth.

“Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, ‘Whom shall I send? Who will go for us?’ ‘Here I am,’ I said, ‘send me!’” - ISAIAH 6:8

Every day, in little ways and in big ways, God asks, “Whom shall I send?” Whether it is someone to take on a new Stewardship ministry, to give a friendly smile to a stranger or to say a word of encouragement to a friend, God constantly provides opportunities to help someone in need. God is always talking to us; we just need to pay more attention. When you hear God calling have the courage to walk through the door and say, “Here I am, Lord.”
