Archidiócesis de Miami

Donaciones planificadas

La promesa de descanso de Cristo se extiende más allá de esta vida. Al incluir a la Arquidiócesis en sus planes testamentarios o patrimoniales, puede crear un legado duradero de fe y apoyar los ministerios que brindan consuelo, sanación y esperanza a las futuras generaciones.

Para obtener más información sobre oportunidades de donaciones planificadas, visite www.adomgift.org.

Mayordomía

La mayordomía comienza con la confianza en la providencia de Dios. Cuando ponemos nuestros dones, talentos y recursos en Sus manos, descubrimos la paz que proviene de servirle a Él y a los demás con un corazón agradecido.

"Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les daré alivio. Tomen mi yugo sobre ustedes y aprendan de mí, que soy manso y humilde de corazón, y encontrarán descanso, porque mi yugo es suave y mi carga, ligera". Mateo: 11:28-29

Dios nos llama a entregarle nuestras preocupaciones y a confiar plenamente en Él. A través de una corresponsabilidad fiel, reconocemos que todo lo que tenemos proviene de Dios y está destinado a compartirse para Su gloria.

Archdiocese of Miami

Planned Giving

Christ's promise of rest extends beyond this life. By including the Archdiocese of Miami in your estate plans, you can create a lasting legacy of faith and support the ministries that bring comfort, healing, and hope to future generations.

To learn more about planned giving opportunities, please visit www.adomgift.org.

Stewardship

Stewardship begins with trust in God's providence. When we place our gifts, talents, and resources in His hands, we discover the peace that comes from serving Him and others with grateful hearts.

"Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am meek and humble of heart; and you will find rest for yourselves. For my yoke is easy, and my burden light..." Matthew 11:28-29

God calls us to surrender our worries and place our confidence in Him. Through faithful stewardship, we recognize that all we have comes from God and is meant to be shared for His glory. to what God is calling you to do and then do it! Share your joy and invite others to do the same.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Mateo 11:25-30

La lectura de hoy, tomada del Evangelio de Mateo, sigue a un discurso en el que Jesús reprende a quienes han presenciado sus obras prodigiosas pero siguen sin creer. En este contexto, el Evangelio de hoy explica la razón de esta incredulidad y revela lo que es necesario para tener fe. Asimismo, el Evangelio de hoy continúa profundizando nuestra comprensión del discipulado, tal como lo hizo el Evangelio de la semana pasada.

En primer lugar, Jesús ora dando gracias a Dios, quien se ha dado a conocer a los discípulos de Jesús. Alaba a Dios por haberse revelado a los “pequeños” y no a los sabios y entendidos. Al igual que en otras lecturas recientes del Evangelio de Mateo, aquí se establece un contraste entre los fariseos incrédulos —que son sabios y entendidos— y los discípulos fieles, los publicanos y los pecadores con quienes Jesús se relaciona.

La segunda parte de esta lectura llama nuestra atención sobre la unidad entre el Padre y el Hijo. Dios se ha dado a conocer a través de Jesús y, al conocer a Jesús, llegamos a conocer al Padre. Dios se nos revela en la vida y en la persona de Jesús.

En las frases finales del Evangelio de hoy, la enseñanza de Jesús se contrasta nuevamente con la de los fariseos. Este tema recurrente en el Evangelio de Mateo probablemente refleja la tensión existente entre Jesús y los fariseos, así como entre estos últimos y la comunidad cristiana para la que escribió Mateo. El judaísmo fariseo se convirtió en la forma predominante de judaísmo tras la destrucción del Templo de Jerusalén, hacia el año 70 D.C. Aquí, dicha tensión se manifiesta como dos caminos distintos hacia la santidad. La observancia minuciosa de la ley mosaica, tal como la enseñaban los fariseos, podía resultar difícil y agobiante para algunos. En cambio, el camino de santidad que propone Jesús se presenta como sencillo e incluso fuente de descanso.

Gospel Reflection

Matthew 11:25-30

Today's reading from Matthew's Gospel comes after a discourse in which Jesus reproaches people who have witnessed his mighty deeds yet still lack belief. In this context, today's Gospel explains the reason for this unbelief and reveals what is necessary for faith. Today's Gospel also continues to enhance our understanding of discipleship as last week's Gospel did.

Jesus first prays in thanksgiving to God who has made himself known to Jesus' disciples. He praises God who has made himself known to the “little ones” and not to the wise and learned. As in other recent readings from Matthew's Gospel, a contrast is made here between the unbelieving Pharisees, who are wise and learned, and the faithful disciples, tax collectors, and sinners with whom Jesus keeps company.

The second part of this reading calls to our attention the unity between the Father and the Son. God has made himself known through Jesus, and in knowing Jesus, we come to know the Father. In Jesus' life and in his person, God reveals himself to us.

In the concluding sentences of today's Gospel, Jesus' teaching is again contrasted to the teaching of the Pharisees. This common theme of Matthew's Gospel probably reflects tension that existed between Jesus and the Pharisees and between the Pharisees and the community of Christians for whom Matthew wrote. Pharisaic Judaism became the predominant form of Judaism after the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem about 70 A.D. Here that tension is expressed as alternative paths of holiness. The careful observance of the Mosaic law taught by the Pharisees could be experienced by some as difficult and burdensome. In contrast, Jesus' way of holiness is presented as uncomplicated and even restful.
