Gospel Reflection

Luke 14:1, 7-14

Meals played an important role in the society in which Jesus lived. More than a time for sharing nourishment, they were a time to share ideas and to model different aspects of social relationships. In Luke's Gospel, the places that a person ate (at the home of a tax collector, 5:29), the people with whom a person ate (sinners, 5:30), whether a person washed before eating (11:38), and, as is the case here, the place that a person sits while eating are all important. The narrator says Jesus tells a parable, but it is really wise advice to both guests and hosts about finding true happiness at the heavenly banquet.

Jesus warns guests to wait before taking their places at the table lest they be asked to move if someone more important arrives. This is more than just a lesson about dinner etiquette. It is advice on how to find your true place in the Kingdom of God. Jesus advises hosts not to invite people who would be expected to repay them to dinner but to invite those who could not repay: the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. This is where real blessings can be found.

In these sayings, Luke gives us not only advice on how to approach the end times but also on how to live according to Jesus' vision of a good society. Luke's Gospel also advises us how the Church must be part of bringing about this society. It is yet another example in Luke's Gospel of the reversal the kingdom brings about.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Lucas 14, 1,7-14

Las comidas desempeñaban un papel importante en la sociedad en la que vivía Jesús. Más que un momento para compartir alimento, eran un momento para compartir ideas y modelar diferentes aspectos de las relaciones sociales. En el Evangelio de Lucas, son importantes los lugares donde se comía (en casa de un recaudador de impuestos, 5:29), las personas con las que se comía (pecadores, 5:30), si una persona se lavaba antes de comer (11:38) y, como en este caso, el lugar donde se sienta mientras come. El narrador dice que Jesús cuenta una parábola, pero en realidad es un sabio consejo tanto para invitados como para anfitriones sobre cómo encontrar la verdadera felicidad en el banquete celestial. Jesús advierte a los invitados que esperen antes de sentarse a la mesa para que no se les pida que se muevan si llega alguien más importante. Esto es más que una simple lección sobre etiqueta en la cena. Es un consejo sobre cómo encontrar su verdadero lugar en el Reino de Dios. Jesús aconseja a los anfitriones no invitar a cenar a quienes se espera que les paguen, sino a quienes no pueden hacerlo: los pobres, los lisiados, los cojos y los ciegos. Aquí es donde se encuentran las verdaderas bendiciones.

En estos dichos, Lucas nos da no solo consejos sobre cómo afrontar el fin de los tiempos, sino también sobre cómo vivir según la visión de Jesús de una buena sociedad. El Evangelio de Lucas también nos aconseja cómo la Iglesia debe contribuir a la creación de esta sociedad. Es otro ejemplo en el Evangelio de Lucas del cambio radical que el reino trae consigo.

Donación Planificada

Las donaciones planificadas son una manera reflexiva y poderosa de apoyar los ministerios y misiones que son tan vitales para nuestra iglesia, extendiendo su corresponsabilidad más allá de su vida. Se trata de marcar la diferencia para las futuras generaciones, permitiendo que su legado continúe alimentando la fe, proporcionando servicios esenciales y fomentando un hogar espiritual vibrante para todos.

Al incluir a nuestra iglesia en sus planes financieros y patrimoniales a largo plazo, nos ayuda a continuar nuestra labor esencial, atendiendo a los necesitados, educando a nuestros jóvenes y manteniendo nuestros espacios sagrados. Su generosidad ayuda a asegurar un futuro brillante para nuestra comunidad de fe.

Permítanos ayudarle a explorar las donaciones planificadas. Puede ponerse en contacto con Katie Blanco en Kblanco@theadom.org o visitar www.adomgift.org hoy mismo.

Mayordomía

El administrador cristiano sabe que la gratitud está en el corazón de la administración. De hecho, la gratitud se encuentra en el corazón de nuestra espiritualidad; es una puerta principal a través de la cual entramos en una relación con nuestro Creador. Tener la libertad de profundizar en nuestra relación con el Señor nos ofrece mucho por lo que estar agradecidos.

"Antes bien, cuando ofrezcas un banquete, llama a pobres, mancos, cojos, ciegos, y serás bienaventurado, ya que ellos no tienen como recompensarte." LUCAS 14:13-14

Uno de los principios más importantes para vivir una vida de corresponsabilidad es dar sin recibir nada a cambio. Esto es difícil de comprender para algunos por la cultura "consumista" en la que vivimos.

Archdiocese of Miami

Planned Giving

Planned giving is a thoughtful and powerful way to support the ministries and missions that are so vital to our church, extending your stewardship beyond your lifetime. It's about making a difference for generations to come, allowing your legacy to continue nurturing faith, providing essential services, and fostering a vibrant spiritual home for all.

By including our church in your long-term financial and estate plans, you help us continue our essential work, ministering to those in need, educating our youth, and maintaining our sacred spaces. Your generosity helps secure a bright future for our faith community.

Let us help you explore planned giving. You can reach Katie Blanco at Kblanco@theadom.org or visit www.adomgift.org today!

Stewardship

The Christian steward knows that gratitude is at the heart of stewardship. Indeed, gratitude lies at the heart of our spirituality; it's a primary door through which we enter into a relationship with our Creator. Having the freedom to deepen our relationship with the Lord offers us much for which to be grateful.

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you." LUKE 14:13-14

One of the main principles of living a Stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in our "consumerist" culture that we live in.
