Donación Planificada

La humildad nos invita a pensar más allá de nosotros mismos. Las donaciones planificadas ofrecen la oportunidad de hacer una diferencia duradera, asegurando que la misión de la Iglesia continúe en el futuro.

Ya sea mediante un legado, un fideicomiso caritativo, una cuenta de jubilación o la designación de la Iglesia como beneficiaria de una póliza de seguro de vida, su donación planificada se convierte en una expresión permanente de gratitud a Dios y en un legado de fe para las futuras generaciones.

Mayordomía

La mayordomía nos llama a imitar la humildad de Cristo. En lugar de enfocarnos solamente en lo que podemos obtener, estamos invitados a preguntarnos cómo podemos servir.

“Tengan los mismos sentimientos que tuvo Cristo Jesús.” FILIPENSES 2:5

La mayordomía nos invita a reconocer que toda bendición viene de Dios. Cuando ponemos Su voluntad antes que la nuestra y compartimos generosamente nuestros dones, nos convertimos en fieles administradores que ayudan a construir Su Reino en la tierra.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Mateo 21:28-3

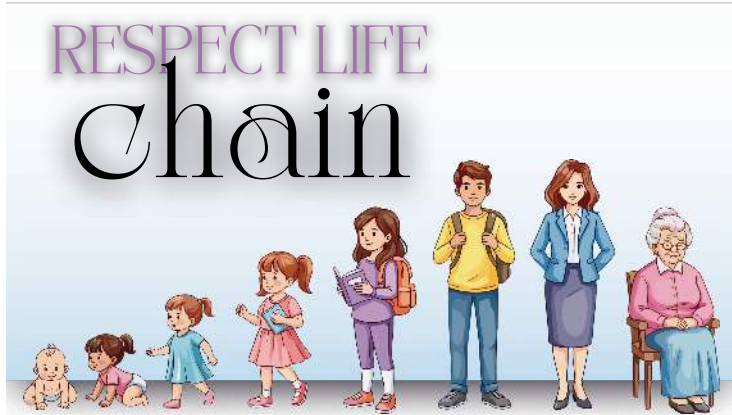

El contexto del Evangelio de hoy es la creciente tensión entre Jesús y los líderes religiosos judíos. Jesús ha entrado en Jerusalén y ha volcado las mesas de los cambistas en el Templo. Jesús ha llamado la atención de las autoridades religiosas; los sumos sacerdotes y los ancianos le preguntan sobre el origen de su autoridad. Jesús se niega a revelarles a estos líderes religiosos la fuente de su autoridad. En su lugar, cuestiona a los sacerdotes y ancianos mediante la parábola que escuchamos en el Evangelio de hoy. La respuesta dada por los líderes religiosos es correcta, pero los condena por no haber atendido el llamado de Juan el Bautista y por su incapacidad para reconocer el Reino de Dios.

La situación que plantea Jesús es bastante sencilla. Ante una misma tarea encomendada por su padre, un hijo manifiesta su desobediencia con palabras, pero luego obedece con sus acciones; el segundo hijo obedece con sus palabras, pero desobedece con sus acciones. La pregunta que plantea Jesús es incisiva y directa: ¿Cuál de los hijos hizo lo que el padre quería? Todos estarían de acuerdo en que “las obras valen más que las palabras” y en que, aunque sus palabras fueran de desobediencia, el hijo que realizó el trabajo según lo ordenado cumplió la voluntad del padre.

La conclusión de Jesús también es directa. Los sumos sacerdotes y los ancianos, aquellos que hablan con más frecuencia sobre Dios, no actuaron en consecuencia. No respondieron al mensaje de conversión anunciado por Juan el Bautista cambiando de actitud. Por el contrario, el mensaje de Juan fue acogido por quienes menos se esperaba que se convirtieran: recaudadores de impuestos, prostitutas y otros pecadores. Debido a sus acciones, estos pecadores entrarán en el Reino de Dios antes que los líderes religiosos.

Jesús podría hacernos la misma pregunta. ¿Reflejan nuestras palabras nuestra obediencia a Dios? Y si no son nuestras palabras, ¿lo hacen nuestras acciones? Dios desea una conversión plena del corazón, que nuestras acciones (y también nuestras palabras) den testimonio de nuestro amor por Él.

Planned Giving

Humility invites us to think beyond ourselves. Planned Giving provides an opportunity to make a lasting difference by ensuring that the Church's mission continues well into the future.

Whether through a bequest, charitable trust, retirement account, or life insurance beneficiary designation, your planned gift becomes a lasting expression of gratitude to God and a legacy of faith for generations to come.

Stewardship

Stewardship calls us to imitate the humility of Christ. Rather than focusing on what we can gain, we are invited to ask how we can serve. Rather than focusing on what we can gain, we are invited to ask how we can serve.

"Humbly regard others as more important than yourselves." Philippians 2:3

Stewardship calls us to imitate Christ's humility by recognizing that every blessing comes from God. When we place His will before our own and generously share our gifts, we become faithful stewards building His Kingdom on earth.

Gospel Reflection

Matthew 21:28-32

The context for today's Gospel is the mounting tension between Jesus and the Jewish religious leaders. Jesus has entered Jerusalem and overturned the money changers' tables in the Temple. Jesus has caught the attention of the religious authorities; the chief priests and elders question Jesus about the source of his authority. Jesus refuses to name for these religious leaders the source of his authority. Instead, he questions the priests and elders through the parable we hear in today's Gospel. The answer given by the religious leaders is correct, but it convicts them for their failure to heed the call of John the Baptist and for their inability to recognize the Kingdom of God.

The situation Jesus poses is rather straightforward. Given the same task by their father, one son asserts his disobedience in words, but then obeys in his actions; the second son obeys with his words, but disobeys in his actions. The question that Jesus poses is pointed and direct: Which son did what the father wanted? All would agree that "actions speak louder than words" and that even if his words were disobedient, the son who did the work as ordered did the father's will.

Jesus' conclusion is also direct. The chief priests and elders, the ones who speak most often about God, did not act accordingly. They did not respond to the message of repentance announced by John the Baptist with a change of heart. Instead, John's message was heeded by those one would not expect to repent—tax collectors, prostitutes, and other sinners. Because of their actions, these sinners will enter the Kingdom of God ahead of the religious leaders.

Jesus could ask us the same question. Do our words indicate our obedience to God? If not our words, do our actions? God desires a full conversion of heart, that our actions (and our words as well) will give evidence of our love for God.
