Catholic Tax Credit Scholarship Fund of South Florida

An Initiative of the Archdiocese of Miami
Your Tax Credit. Their Catholic Education.
What if your federal tax credit could help change a child's future by providing them with a Catholic education?

Beginning in 2027, a new federal scholarship tax credit will provide eligible taxpayers with an opportunity to support K-12 education, including our Catholic schools, while receiving a dollar-for-dollar federal income tax credit of up to $1,700 per individual taxpayer, or potentially up to $3,400 for married couples filing jointly when both spouses make qualifying contributions, subject to applicable federal requirements.

Through the Catholic Tax Credit Scholarship Fund of South Florida, the Archdiocese of Miami is preparing to connect this opportunity with its mission of making Catholic education more accessible to children and families throughout South Florida. Your contribution can help open doors to Catholic education while potentially reducing your federal income tax liability.

How Does It Work?

1. Support Education

Beginning in 2027, eligible taxpayers may contribute to a Scholarship Granting Organization (SGO) approved by a participating state. The Catholic Tax Credit Scholarship Fund of South Florida is preparing to seek approval as an SGO in Florida.

2. Receive a Federal Tax Credit

Qualifying contributions may be eligible for a dollar-for-dollar federal income tax credit of up to $1,700 per individual taxpayer, or potentially up to $3,400 for married couples filing jointly when both spouses make qualifying contributions, subject to applicable federal requirements. Qualifying contributions must be made in the form of cash, including payments by check, electronic funds transfer (EFT), credit card, or debit card. Note: The same dollars cannot generate both the tax credit and a charitable deduction.

3. Open Doors for Students

Contributions help fund scholarships that provide eligible students with greater access to educational opportunities, including Catholic education. Note: While contributions can be earmarked for a particular school, they cannot be designated for a particular student, including your own child.

Be Among the First to Learn More

The Catholic Tax Credit Scholarship Fund of South Florida is preparing for its anticipated launch in 2027. Whether you are interested in contributing, exploring scholarship opportunities for your family, or learning how the program works, we invite you to stay connected.

Reflexión del Evangelio

Mateo 5,1-12

Cada año, la Iglesia recuerda el ejemplo, el testimonio y la oración de los hombres y mujeres santos a quienes ha reconocido como tales. Estos santos son más que simples modelos a seguir; son miembros de la familia con quienes mantenemos un vínculo vivo a través de la oración: la Comunión de los Santos. Cada vez que celebramos este día, el Evangelio que proclamamos nos recuerda la enseñanza de Jesús sobre la felicidad: las Bienaventuranzas. Al leerlo, notamos de inmediato que ninguna de las personas a las que Jesús llama "bienaventuradas" o "felices" es la que cabría esperar: los pobres de espíritu, los mansos, los perseguidos. El modelo de felicidad de Jesús poco tiene que ver con lo que el mundo suele considerar felicidad.

¿Qué quiere decir Jesús cuando emplea la palabra "bienaventurado"? Este término se traduce a veces como "feliz", "afortunado" o "favorecido". En otras palabras, Jesús afirma que el favor divino recae sobre los pobres, los que sufren y los perseguidos. Para la multitud que escuchaba a Jesús aquel día, estas palabras debieron de resultar tanto sorprendentes como reconfortantes.

Las Bienaventuranzas pueden entenderse como una guía para la vida cristiana. Por ello, es natural que proclamemos este Evangelio en la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos. Los santos son personas que vivieron el espíritu de las Bienaventuranzas tal como lo hizo Jesús. En este día, también nosotros nos sentimos llamados a modelar nuestra vida según el espíritu y las promesas de las Bienaventuranzas.

Donación Planificada

Este fin de semana, al recordar a nuestros seres queridos fallecidos y reflexionar sobre la vida eterna, también recordamos el legado que dejamos. Las donaciones planificadas son una manera significativa de honrar su fe y sus valores, apoyando a la Iglesia incluso después de su fallecimiento. Su donativo puede sostener los ministerios, la educación y las iniciativas de alcance comunitario de la Iglesia católica para las generaciones futuras.

Descubra cómo crear su legado: www.adomgift.org.

Mayordomía

Hoy honramos a los santos. Ellos comprendieron que este mundo no es nuestro hogar definitivo. Sus vidas reflejaban un profundo anhelo de Dios. Jesús habla de este deseo en el Evangelio de hoy:

"Dichosos los que tienen hambre y sed de justicia, porque serán saciados." (Mateo 5:6)

La mayordomía cristiana nos invita a preguntarnos: Si mi corazón anhela verdaderamente a Dios, ¿cómo debo utilizar los dones que Él me ha confiado?

Planned Giving

This weekend, as we remember our beloved departed and reflect on eternal life, we're also reminded of the legacy we leave behind. Planned Giving is a meaningful way to honor your faith and values by supporting the Church even beyond your lifetime. Your gift can sustain Catholic ministries, education, and outreach for generations.

Learn how to create your legacy: www.adomgift.org.

Stewardship

Today, we honor the saints. Saints understood that this world is not our final home. Their lives reflected a deep longing for God. Jesus speaks of this desire in today's Gospel:

"Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied." (Matthew 5:6)

Stewardship asks: If my heart truly longs for God, how should I use the gifts He has entrusted to me?

"TRUST IN THE LORD
WITH ALL YOUR HEART ...
AND HE WILL MAKE YOUR PATHS STRAIGHT."

Gospel Reflection

Mathew 5:1-12

Every year the Church recalls the example, witness, and prayer of the holy women and men who have been identified by the Church as Saints. These saints are more than just role models; they are family members with whom we continue to share relation, in a bond of prayer, called the Communion of Saints. Every year when we celebrate this day, the Gospel we proclaim recalls for us Jesus' teaching about happiness, the Beatitudes. We quickly note in this reading that none of those Jesus names as "blessed" or "happy" are expected . . . the poor in spirit, the meek, the persecuted. Jesus' blueprint for happiness reflects little of what the world might call happiness.

What does Jesus mean when he uses the word "blessed?" This word is sometimes translated as "happy" or "fortunate" or "favored." In other words, Jesus is saying that divine favor is upon those who are poor, who mourn, who are persecuted. This might have been welcome and surprising news to the crowds who heard Jesus that day.

The Beatitudes can be understood as a framework for Christian living. Because of this, it is natural that we proclaim this Gospel on the Feast of All Saints. Saints are people who lived the spirit of the Beatitudes as Jesus lived. On this day, we too are challenged to model our lives on the spirit and promises of the Beatitudes.
