From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend's Gospel contains a curious line that is repeated in its description of how Jesus taught: "He taught as one having authority and not as the Scribes...." I've always wondered exactly what that must have been like. Was it the inflection of His voice that gave Jesus "authority?" Over the years when I was growing up, my mother yelled at me for many reasons, (most of them justified.) But I could always tell from the tone in her voice whether she was yelling at me because that was what she did, or she was yelling at me because she really meant it! There was a difference..., subtle though it may have been. Ignore the former, and I'd probably just get yelled at some more, but ignore the latter...well...the full weight of her authority over me would have come down like a ton a bricks, crushing any hope of not getting grounded and sending me to my room to stew and consider my failures and mistakes! Now THAT was authority! OK, a little melodramatic hyperbole here...but you get the point.

Still, there is more to authority than simply the ability to raise your voice or express the seriousness of your cause. It also has to do with fully knowing that of which you are speaking about. On many different occasions, I recall Fr. Broderick telling stories about his military service during World War II. He served as the bombardier on a B-24 Liberator heavy bomber, having flown numerous missions over Germany with the U.S. Army Air Corps. A bit of a history buff myself, I had done much reading and study about that war. From them, I knew quite a bit about the different battles that were fought, the various ships, planes, tanks and equipment that were involved and the differing peoples and nations that fought during it. I imagine that I could give a fairly detailed presentation about many different aspects of that time period. But I obviously never lived through it. I built a plastic scale model of a B-24 when I was a kid. He actually flew in one!

In listening to Fr. Broderick's stories, it was evident that he had seen and experienced many things. He knew what it felt like to be squeezed into the claustrophobic nose of an airplane, what the odor of hydraulic fluid smelled like, what it meant to see empty seats back at their ready room after a mission was complete. He recalled how much his lieutenant cursed and drank and smoked. He described the feelings of utter terror and the naïve confidence that washed over him with equal measure. He spoke of the puzzling guilt he felt for having survived something that so many others had not. With sublime nuances, he talked about the brazen swagger of a nineteen-year-old dealing with the crushing realities of death and suffering and loss. In other words...he spoke with the authority of one who had really been there and whose life was fundamentally altered because of it. It was heart-knowledge, not just head-knowledge.

COLLABORATIVE NEWS

It is in this same sense that I think we need to understand Jesus' authority in His teachings. It's not just that Jesus knew what he was talking about, but also that Jesus knew WHO he was sharing: namely, His own real, lived-out relationship with God His Father. This is the relationship that commands respect. This is the relationship that with the greatest of strength can move our hearts with the gentlest of words. This is the relationship that defines everything else, because it is an intimate connection with the One who was and is and ever will be, the very author of life itself, the Creator of the Universe. No wonder the evil spirits even obeyed this kind of authority. No wonder the people of Jesus' time recognized in their souls that His teaching was something different, something new, something to be listened to!

We are bearers in this same authority when we share our own lived-out relationship with God. No matter how fleeting or tentative we might feel it is, when we offer our own experience of God, it has its own authority or ability to get people's attention...to capture their hearts. Our Baptismal call is to share that lived-out relationship with the Lord with others, not keep it to ourselves. Because when we do, God can work through our words and testimony to accomplish many things in those who hear them.

So, let's give witness, let's share our stories of what God is up to in our lives, of what God has helped us with or accomplished for us. Our real, true encounters with the Lord have their own ability to gather other's attention and invite them deeper into that same relationship that brings us hope, joy and new life. His name is Jesus! Let us listen to Him more closely, now that He has our attention.

Fr. Timothy Harrison, Pastor

At-Home Lenten Retreat

Jesus, Wounded Healer Perfected Through Suffering: Exploring the transforming role of suffering in Jesus' life and your own

Scripture will guide our retreat. "Son though he was, he learned obedience from what he suffered; and when he was made perfect, he became the source of eternal life for all who obey him." Heb. 5: 8-9

Jesus the Christ, our wounded healer, calls to us in this time of suffering. We are wounded and desire healing. Following Jesus through our Lenten retreat we will stay awake with Jesus as he is wounded and suffers for us. We will give thanks for his great love and salvific suffering as we explore our own suffering and its transforming power. Responding to his love, we may allow Jesus to enter through our own wounds, heal us with his saving love, and be transformed. We, too, may become wounded healers to our world as His healing love flows through us to others.

Retreat packet materials will support learning through Scripture and offer teachings of Richard Rhor, Cynthia Bourgeault, Marcus Borg, Joan Chittister, Paul Coutinho SJ, Carlo Charrette, St. Ignatius of Loyola, Julien of Norwich, Henri Nouwen, Pope John Paul II, and others as well as poems, prayers, and questions for reflection. Ponder and share with God what touches you. Stay awake and open to God's response. Bring your experiences of God to spiritual direction.

Connecting with the Christ's many forms of suffering through prayer, reading, reflection, group sharing, and individual spiritual direction you will be aided to name and explore your own experiences of suffering and desire for healing. You will have opportunities for three individual one-hour sessions of spiritual direction by phone or zoom scheduled at your convenience.

This retreat is designed to be affordable, convenient, and safe. It will begin with a group Zoom meeting to discuss the retreat's theme and prepare you for our Lenten journey. The fourth week Zoom meeting will include teaching and time to share reflections and responses to material read and support each other as the retreat continues. The closing session will provide an opportunity for you to share the fruits of retreat, continued desires, and questions.

Opening Session: (held twice for your convenience)
Tuesday, February 23, 6:00 p.m.–7:00 p.m.

Questions of the Week

Adult: What are the evils in today's world that you pray God will free us from?

Child: Can you think of any bad things that happen in our world that you can pray to God to make better?

Year of St. Joseph

Pope Francis has proclaimed 2021 as a "Year of St. Joseph"

Pope Francis said that during the coronavirus pandemic he has been reflecting on St. Joseph who, just like so many of us have made unseen sacrifices during the pandemic to protect others, St. Joseph quietly protected and cared for Mary and Jesus.

"Each of us can discover in Joseph—the man who goes unnoticed, a daily, discreet and hidden presence—an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble," the pope wrote. He also said he wanted to highlight St. Joseph's role as a father who served his family with charity and humility, adding, "Our world today needs fathers." (CNA, 12-10-20)

With this podcast, you will read the Bible in a year, learn how all the pieces of the Bible fit together to tell an amazing story, become more confident in your understanding of Scripture, experience the power of God's Word in your daily routine, and begin to see the world through the lens of Scripture. Each daily episode is about 20 minutes long.

Centering Prayer and Lectio Divina

We welcome all members of our Collaborative community to join us each Wednesday 6:00–7:00 p.m. via Zoom for 30 minutes of Centering Prayer, silently resting in God and surrendering and assenting to God's presence and action in our lives. This ancient prayer practice opens our minds and hearts to hear God's words as we continue by reading Sacred Scripture in group Lectio Divina.

For the next 30 minutes we listen to God's words, ponder and share what we hear the Lord saying to us here and now, and contemplate God's message to us and let it guide our choices and actions. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen our personal relationship with God.

For more information, please call Elizabeth McCarthy, 978-462-7483.

Winter Weather Mass Cancellations

Due to the hazards of travel and the safety of priests and parishioners alike, this winter daily Mass within the Collaborative will be cancelled if Immaculate Conception School, Pentucket Regional, or Newburyport Public Schools in-person classes are cancelled or delayed because of inclement weather. WBZ Channel 4 will have the updated school cancellation information. It is also available on their website at boston.cbslocal.com and we will make every effort to keep our own website and social media updated as well.

In severe situations, it may also be necessary for safety reasons to cancel weekend Masses. Again, please watch WBZ or consult the websites and/or social media for cancellation information.

Thank you for your patience and understanding. In all things, God gave us the gifts of wisdom, reason, and prudence. Let's use them wisely this winter and exercise sound judgment when considering going out in severe weather.

Ecumenical Candlelight Taizé Meditation Service

Live Streamed

On Sunday, January 31, at 7:00 p.m., you are invited to attend a candlelight meditation service live-streamed on the Groveland Congregational Church Facebook page, and also available afterward for viewing. The program will also be available for printing on the Facebook page.

The theme of this month's service is "Behold, I make all things new!" As we begin a new year, we hope and pray for justice, peace, respect, and kindness. We pray for the guidance of God's spirit. The service is modeled after those held at the Taizé community in France, with prayer, song, scripture, petitions, and silence.

Taizé prayer is a simple form of ecumenical Christian prayer centered on scripture, silence and song. It involves singing and listening to the word of God in an atmosphere of silence and peace. The worship space will be illuminated with a multitude of candles; the music will consist of simple repeated refrains, enabling the worshippers to enter into prayer. There will be readings from scripture, petitions, and a time of silent prayer.

Why not give yourself the gift of these few moments of calm and peace in God's presence!

Mass Scripture Readings

The Scripture passages read each day at Mass will no longer be posted in the bulletin. Instead, they can be found online at bible.usccb.org the site of the United States Council of Catholic Bishops. There you will find the daily readings, be able to listen to them on podcast, and have the opportunity to watch a short reflection piece on the readings offered by a Catholic priest, deacon, religious, or lay person.

Praying with the Scriptures daily is a wonderful way to deepen our relationship with Our Lord and to discern how best to serve God as an intentional disciple of Christ. Please access the HRIC webpage to learn about Lectio Divina as a way of praying the Scriptures. Go to www.HRICatholic.org; click on HRIC Pastoral Plan; and then click on Lectio Divina.

(The free App "Laudate" allows you to access the daily Scripture readings on your cell phone.)

Getting started is easy—you need to be a registered member of Holy Redeemer Parish community. Parish registration forms are available on the website or contact the parish office.

Once you register with the parish, or if you are already a registered parishioner, visit our website, hriccatholic.org and click the “Links” tab, then click on “HR Parish Online Giving” to get to the site. There are three different funds you can contribute to: Offertory, Monthly and Grand Annual.

If you manage your other bills online, why not give to your Church online? It is safe and secure and you get to decide exactly when and to where your gift will be made.

Questions? Contact Linda Temple, HRIC Administrative Assistant at 978-462-2724 x7404.

Act of Spiritual Communion

Those who cannot receive Communion right now are all encouraged to make an act of Spiritual Communion.

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.
