Questions of the Week

Adult: What are the temptations that lead people away from God in today's world?

Child: When you feel tempted to do the wrong thing, what do you do?

Divine Mercy at HRIC

Although the devotion to Divine Mercy is new in its expression as a feast day, novena, and special set of prayers, the spiritual underpinnings are as old as Christianity: fall upon God's mercy for this broken world; trust in Jesus completely; engage in acts of mercy towards others. God's mercy is His greatest attribute. Yes, He is Creator and Lord, but the undeserved love and forgiveness He shows for fallen humanity reveals the fathomless depths of His Heart. St. Faustina Kowalska received a series of "visits" from Jesus, asking her to spread knowledge of and devotion to His mercy to a weary world and this blossomed and spread quickly. So often we become hardened and see only justice needing to be done. Yet God wants to show His mercy at this time when so many have fallen so far away from Him. Jesus merely asks that the soul trusts Him completely and allows Him to act.

Next week, we will begin walking through the five main components of this devotion. Until then, may we repeat together: "Jesus, I trust in You!"

Thursday Morning Fellowship & Video Series: Divine Mercy in the Second Greatest Story Ever Told

Thursdays, February 26–April 9; 9:45–11:15 a.m. (except April 2, Holy Thursday, which will be at 9:00 a.m.) in IC St. Louis Hall. Join us for a deep-dive into the story of how this devotion came about and how it is connected to the most fundamental teachings of the Catholic faith. This high quality documentary tells the fascinating history of how God has used people and whole nations to lead the world back to his merciful Heart. Join for the food, spiritually rich content, and conversation.

Let us begin this journey together with the central prayer of this devotion: "Jesus, I trust in You!"

No reservations necessary. See you on March 15.

Want to Expand Your Prayer Life during Lent?

*"Where two or more gather in my name,
there am I in the midst of them"*

Jesus defined prayer as a sincere conversation with God, a relationship built on trust, and a way to seek both personal needs and God's will. Prayer is not just asking for things but is an act of worship, seeking God's kingdom and aligning one's will with His.

Please consider joining the Tuesday morning Women's Prayer Group which meets via Zoom from 10:00–11:45 (join us for as long as you can) as we read and discuss the day's Gospel and pray the Rosary and the Divine Mercy Chaplet.

If you are interested, please contact via phone or in person Mary Zerigian (508-269-3405) or Betty Long. We pray that you will join us as we raise our voices to the Lord!

A Lenten Directed Retreat

Father, Forgive Them

As his death on the cross approached, Jesus prayed “Father, forgive them, they know not what they do.” (Lk.23:34) In his final moments, experiencing profound physical, mental, and spiritual suffering Jesus prayed not for himself, but for others. His total self-emptying and perfect love moved him to forgive those who crucified him.

Throughout his life Jesus’ words and works affirmed a forgiving spirit was essential to follow him. He commanded his disciples to love one another as he loved them and not to approach God with offerings until at peace with others, saying, “If you bring your gift to the altar and there you recall your brother has anything against you, leave your gift there at the altar, go first and be reconciled with your brother, and then come and offer your gift (Mt.5:23–24).”

This retreat will explore the process, power, and fruits of forgiveness through sacramental confession, scripture, spiritual writers, prayer, reflection, and spiritual direction. The Sacrament of Reconciliation through which we receive forgiveness for our own sins and the grace to become more like Christ is central to our Lenten practice and important to this retreat.

Four one-hour spiritual direction sessions scheduled at your convenience. This offering is designed to provide an affordable, convenient retreat that creates an intimate space for you to share yourself deeply with the Holy Spirit’s guidance.

Retreat Opens Feb. 15. Retreat Closes April 1.

Begin retreat any time you choose.

Centering Prayer/Lectio Divina for Lent

Our Lenten reflection on Jesus’ words and works reveals his intimate relationship with his Father. We see the depth of Jesus’ faith, trust, and love for God as he often withdraws from crowds to pray alone in silence. Through Centering Prayer, you withdraw from the world to enter your inner room. Lent is a time to follow Jesus more closely and learn from him how to pray in silence, spending time placing God at the center of your life, opening yourself to a loving Father, surrendering your will and in trust allowing God to transform you. This interior prayer is how we pray as we Center.

Centering Prayer is an ancient Christian practice available to all who seek transformation through a more intimate relationship with God. This daily practice deepens our faith as we come to better know our God as one who loves us unconditionally just as we are and trust God has plans to give us a future of hope. Centering Prayer helps us say to the Father, “Not my will but yours be done” (Lk. 22: 42).

Please join us and let God move you closer to him. All are welcome as we gather Wednesdays from 6–7 p.m. via Zoom. Following 30 minutes of Centering Prayer we practice Lectio Divina. We listen to God’s words in scripture, ponder, and share what we hear the Lord saying to us here and now and let it guide our choices and actions. Both practices strengthen our faith and reliance on God and deepen and our personal relationship with God.

If you are interested in joining us or learning more about these practices, contact Elizabeth McCarthy 978-462-7483.

Guidelines for Lent

Fasting, almsgiving, and prayer are the three traditional disciplines of Lent.

Fasting during Lent

Good Friday is a day of fasting. Catholics age 18–59 are bound to the obligation of fasting. When fasting, a person is permitted to eat one full meal, as well as two smaller meals that together are not equal to a full meal. Eating between meals is not permitted, but liquids, including water, milk, and fruit juices are allowed.

Abstinence during Lent

Abstinence is observed on all Fridays of Lent. Abstinence is the absence of meat all day. Fish is allowed during Lent, though. All Catholics over 14 years of age are bound to the obligation of abstinence.

The Sacrament of the Sick

The Anointing of the Sick is one of the seven Sacraments of our Church and is administered by a priest for healing and inner wholeness. Those who are seriously ill, elderly, or are entering the hospital can request to be anointed. Due to varied schedules and availability, it may not always be possible for a priest to come on short notice to offer the Sacrament, therefore it is strongly recommended that you request the Anointing of the Sick before going in for a hospital stay, upon entering a nursing home, or at the beginning of hospice care. Please call the Collaborative offices at 978-462-2724 or 978-346-8604 to learn more.

Shawls and lapghans are given freely as a gift, to offer comfort and joy! We would be happy to deliver to anyone. Or if you personally would like to give one to a friend, relative, or neighbor, please contact Helen at 978-771-4673.

We will be taking a “winter break” from our meetings until May 7, but will continue to deliver shawls and lapghans to those who need them during our break. When we start again, we meet on the first Thursday of every month at Nativity Hall in Merrimac at 2:00 p.m.

Now that Lent has begun, we invite you to take a Mite Box as you leave church. Almsgiving is an integral part of Lent and putting a few coins per day in these boxes will help the poor in West Newbury and Merrimac. (See Mark 12: 42–44)

Your kind donations in any form are always greatly appreciated. Please use the envelopes that can be found on tables at the main entrances of St. Ann and Nativity churches for your donations. These can be mailed or placed in the poor boxes. Reminder: Make sure to make checks payable to HR St. Vincent de Paul.

Cross Catholic Outreach at IC

This past weekend we were visited by Fr. Pham of Cross Catholic Outreach. Cross Catholic Outreach and its ministry partners are doing AMAZING work around the world to help our less fortunate brothers and sisters. IC St. Vincent de Paul

Your support helps us assist our neighbors with food, rent, utilities, and other urgent needs.

With the extremely cold weather, the need for utility assistance grows each week. We have helped those struggling with rent to remain in their homes and not face homelessness during this winter.

Adoration Note Cards are Back

Many people had asked for more of the Richard Jones watercolor, Adoration, depicting the altar at Immaculate Conception during adoration with Deacon Dow and our beloved friend, Joseph Patchett.

We are happy to announce we have boxes of the cards available for the cost of $10 each box.

Cards will be available for purchase through the office and select daily and weekend Masses.

We are blessed by the work of our very talented parishioner, Richard Jones, and are grateful he has allowed us to use the image once again.
