Newburyport Chamber Music Festival Open Rehearsal

Wednesday, August 9, 10:00 a.m., Nativity Church

Ever want to be a fly on the wall and see how a classical work is prepared for performance? Come see the festival artists assemble this summer's repertoire. Central to NCMF, open rehearsals allow the audience to obtain an unvarnished look at the sometimes difficult and controversial process in which a piece is transformed from black marks on a page to a piece of music by individuals working together to make an artistic statement.

Join us Wednesday, August 9, from 10:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m., at Nativity Church in Merrimac for a free and open-to-the-public rehearsal for the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival (NCMF). For more information on the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival, visit newburyportchambermusic.org.

From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

In this weekend's Gospel, there are two issues at stake. First there is the reputation and honor of the landowner. "Master, did you not sow good seed in your field? Where have the weeds come from?" (Mt 13:27) Agriculture wasn't as high-tech back in ancient times, and it was often difficult to tell one seed from the next. People bought and traded things like seed and grain based on the good reputation of the seller trusting that they would not be deceived. Thus, this landowner was caught off-guard when the "good seed" that he sowed seemed to be laced with weeds. He knew that what he planted was quality grain so there must have been another explanation for where all the weeds came from. Only a true enemy would be so devious as to act to bring his whole crop into question.

This raises the second issue: what to do about the whole mess? It was a classic "damned if you do, damned if you don't" situation. Let weeds grow alongside the wheat and they will pull precious, critical moisture and nutrients from the soil that were meant for the wheat. This means the crop will ultimately fail. Try and pull-up the weeds, and you risk uprooting the wheat with them. In particular, the weeds in question were a specific variety called, Darnell, which in their infancy look an awful lot like young wheat sprouts. So, pulling up the wheat while attempting to "weed" the garden was a very real possibility.

The saving grace here is the confidence that the landowner has in the quality of his wheat. He knew that he planted good seed that would be strong and resilient, competing well for whatever it needed from the soil. He was sure that his crop of wheat would grow sufficiently to produce a rich harvest. And once grown...it would be much easier to tell the difference from the two plants and separate the weeds from the wheat.

The surprising bonus here is that what was set up to be a lose-lose scenario for the poor farmer becomes a winning end result as the landowner not only gets his rich harvest of wheat, but also a fuel-crop from the weeds—something to burn in the ovens once all that wheat was ground into flour, cakes and more! It was sort of an ancient version of the old adage, "When life deals you lemons, make lemonade!" In this case, when given weeds among the wheat, grow both crops, one to make loaves of bread from, the other to fuel the ovens in which to bake them! In the end, many blessings were had because of the good seed sown and the landowner's trust in the quality and strength of what was planted.

It is a thinly-veiled parable for us today of why God allows sin to coexist and even grow alongside His Grace in this world. For those of us who have ever been perplexed or discouraged by what seems to be "the hand of an enemy" getting an upper hand in daily life... take heart! And perhaps have a little more faith that what God has planted will produce a rich harvest for the Kingdom, despite a few weeds along the way. God, after all, knows what to do with weeds...! And He knows fully well how to turn a seeming defeat into a glorious victory!

Summer blessings to all!

In particular, representatives of all our ministries are encouraged to join and show off your creativity in displaying the work of the many ministries which serve the greater Newburyport community. Children are welcome!

The route is approximately 1.5 miles long. We will line up next to Atkinson Common at 11:00 a.m. on Sunday, August 6 and the parade will begin promptly at noon.

The Pelican Intervention Fund

Mark your calendars for the upcoming Yankee Homecoming Parade in Newburyport on Sunday, August 6.

This parade is extra special as The Pelican Intervention Fund will be marching right behind the Immaculate Conception Team as we help celebrate the 175th Anniversary of the Immaculate Conception Church.

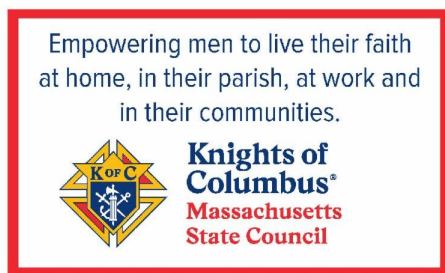

After the parade, Pelican Intervention Fund will sponsor a reception (pizza & soft drinks) at the Bartlett Mall. (basically the finish line). You are welcome to attend and meet the 12-step sober homes we support and the clients you've helped place throughout the years. P.I.F. has now placed 130 young men and women into recovery programs. Please feel free to join us in celebration.

As always, thank-you for your continued support for the Pelican Intervention Fund.

IC Haiti Second Collection

August 5–6

The weekend of August 5 and 6 will mark the end of this year's Yankee Homecoming festivities. It is the weekend of the fireworks, the parade, and the IC Haiti quarterly collection. Please do not forget our struggling brothers and sisters in Haiti while we are joyfully celebrating our own heritage.

Back in 2008, when our faith community first responded to the Lord's call to serve the people of Haiti, we did so with joyful hearts and eyes wide open. We proclaimed: I see Haiti: I see hope! We formed an alliance with the well-established Saint Boniface Haiti Foundation (now Health Equity International) with a promise to respond to the needs of the Haitian people as best we were able.

Eventually we focused our assistance on their children's vitally important need for an education. In providing and maintaining a school, we have truly been offering hope for the future of Haiti. We have also helped in response to natural disasters and health crises, but our focus has remained on providing an education to primary and secondary school aged children. Despite the recent and ongoing humanitarian crisis in Haiti, we have been advised not to divert our aid efforts away from the educational needs of the children currently attending the Father Marc Piché school in Puit Chacha and those who have advanced to secondary school in Fond des Blancs. Because of your generosity, IC Haiti has remained true to its commitment to offer the gift of hope to our brothers and sisters in Christ in Haiti.

As we celebrate Yankee Homecoming this year, please continue to support the efforts of IC Haiti and to pray for the wellbeing of the Haitian people.

IC 175TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Reverend Teeling Legacy

REV. ARTHUR J. TEELING

Rev Teeling's legacy can be seen and felt even today. Among the many contributions to Immaculate Conception Parish are the introduction of a parochial school, a consecrated burial ground, and many elements of the church itself. In 1889, Rev. Teeling once more turned his attention to the church for additional improvements. Most importantly, the construction of a spacious sacristy and the installation of the memorial stained-glass windows.

Perhaps you will participate in the church tours being offered on Sunday, July 30. When you look about, please remember the work of Rev. Arthur Teeling. Can you find the memorial window donated by Rev. Teeling in the memory of Rev. Lennon?

Arthur J. Teeling

In April of 1893, Rev. Teeling was appointed Pastor of St. Mary's in Lynn where he remained until his death in 1927 at the age of 93.

Catholic Appeal Goal: 21,665	$26,285

The second collection this weekend (July 23) is Electrical Cooling Costs. The second collection next weekend (July 30) is Missionary Appeal (See below.). Unless otherwise indicated, make out checks to Holy Redeemer Parish with the second collection noted in the memo.

If you would like to mail in your collections, send them to Holy Redeemer Parish, 4 Green Street, Merrimac, MA 01860.

Missionary Appeal July 29–30

The missionary visiting us next weekend is Fr. Tulio Ramirez, mxy. He belongs to the Yarumal Mission Society. He is a missionary priest who has served the people of God in Kenya and Ethiopia in Africa and in The Bronx, NY. He is originally from Colombia, South America. The goal of the Yarumal Mission Society is to witness the Gospel of Jesus Christ among people and cultures where the Gospel is not yet fully preached. They are present in Angola, Bolivia, Cambodia, Colombia, Ecuador, Ivory Coast, Kenya, Panama and Thailand. In order to carry out their pastoral programs and social projects, their missionaries depend very much on the generosity of the Christians from parishes they visit. Our support for Fr. Tulio and his missions, is a sign that reminds us of our baptismal vocation: We are all missionaries of Christ. Please be generous.

Volunteers Needed for Merrimac “Old Home Days”

This year, scout Troop 41 will be unable to host their traditional Chicken BBQ as part of Merrimac Old Home Days on August 11–13.

Volunteers are being sought from the Collaborative who might be willing to step in and run this much-loved event this year. The Scouts will provide equipment and a step-by-step set of directions to those willing to help. If you are interested, please contact our Collaborative offices and leave your name and contact information with Melinda or Christine. They can be reached at 978-346-8604. Thank you for your help in carrying on a wonderful and tasty tradition!

HR St. Vincent de Paul

Our conference began in 2014 when seven people said “Yes!” to the idea of forming a St. Vincent de Paul ministry at Holy Redeemer Parish. Over the years, membership has changed, but five of the original group remain.

This conference has distributed over $100,000 in donations to those in need and helped dozens of families in Merrimac and W. Newbury.

We have shared the need for new membership. Please say “Yes!” to the call to “seek and find the forgotten.” We urgently need your help. Anyone interested in joining us should call 978-364-8604 and leave a voice message at the HR St. Vincent de Paul prompt. Please email Marie Pierce at mvpierce4@gmail.com or Dave Olds: dolds777@gmail.com.

Please continue to give generously using our poor boxes and the envelopes provided in the pews of both churches. Your donations are very much appreciated. Mail donations to 4 Green St. Merrimac, MA 01860.

Don't forget the clothes collection bin behind the Green St., Merrimac rectory and also beside the Food Mart in West Newbury. As always, we appreciate your generosity.

If you know of someone who needs assistance, please have them call our hotline at 978-346-8604 X4.

Chamber Music Festival Rehearsal at Nativity

Wednesday, August 9, 10:00 a.m., Nativity Church

Come see the festival artists assemble this summer's repertoire. NCMF open rehearsals allow the audience to obtain an unvarnished look at the sometimes difficult and controversial process in which a piece is transformed from black marks on a page to a piece of music by individuals working together to make an artistic statement.

Join us Wednesday, August 9, from 10:00 a.m.–12:30 p.m., at Nativity Church in Merrimac for a free and open-to-the-public rehearsal for the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival (NCMF). For more information on the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival, visit newburyportchambermusic.org.

For more information on the Newburyport Chamber Music Festival, visit newburyportchambermusic.org.

Shawls and Lapghans

Shawls and lapghans are given freely as a gift, to offer comfort and joy! We would be happy to deliver to anyone. Or if you personally would like to give one to a friend, relative or neighbor, please contact Helen at 978-771-4673 or hvktax@aol.com. Come join us. We meet on the first Thursday of every month at Nativity Hall in Merrimac at 2:00 p.m. Don't know how to knit or crochet? We will teach you! All are welcome.

Our next meeting is Thursday, August 3 at Nativity Hall, Merrimac at 2:00 p.m.
