SHELLSTONE COLLECTION, HAUTE NATURE

Mother of pearl is one of nature's most astonishing creations and it forms the essence of the Shellstone Collection.

Patiently handcrafted in different sizes and beautiful mosaic patterns and iridescent shades, it is truly a marvelous accomplishment by Antolini, that can only be executed with the finest materials and unrivaled craftsmanship.

When placed together, each design creates a unique, kaleidoscopic spectacle that evokes a sense of wonder, that is only matched by the shimmering, oceanic depths.

The Shellstone Collection is the embodiment of refinement and captures a fraction of the beauty of oceanic life. When applied, it will immediately enrich its surroundings with unparalleled, enchanting optical effects and emotion.
