

Doing Qualitative Research: Explore, Practice, Connect

April 8th

18.15 Optional dinner
Free program following dinner

April 9th

9.30 Arrival

10.00 Opening remarks – Hilda Amsing, Vice-Dean Faculty of Behavioral and Social Sciences

10.15 Keynote Leen Sterckx: Inclusive Research: what core principles of qualitative research have to offer
Followed by discussion

11.00 Break + head to workshops

11.15 First Workshop Round

- The role of theory in qualitative research – Fijgje de Boer
- Panel: Using AI in qualitative research? – Maarten Derksen
- Ethnography and observational research in daily life and organizational settings Suzanne Roggeveen
- Focusgroups: tackling challenges in practice – Anja van der Voort and Lisa Tessensohn
- Coding discourses: reflexive and computer-assisted discourse analysis with MAXQDA – Tamara Pataki
- To design or not to design, that is the question! – Marjorie Bakker, Linda Meijer

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Keynote Quality of qualitative research – Xavier Salet

14:45 Break + head to workshops

15:00 Second Workshop Round

- The role of theory in qualitative research – Fijgje de Boer
- Focusgroups: tackling challenges in practice – Anja van der Voort and Lisa Tessensohn
- Making sense of everyday conversations: A practical introduction to micro-analysis – Ole Gmelin
- Walk-along Interviews – Bas Spierings
- 'You've Assumed Wrong!': Policy, Assumptions, and Realist Evaluation – Maria Vlieg & Gina van Dooren

16:45 Closing Remarks
Drinks reception