

A Pledge to the 117th New York Assembly District

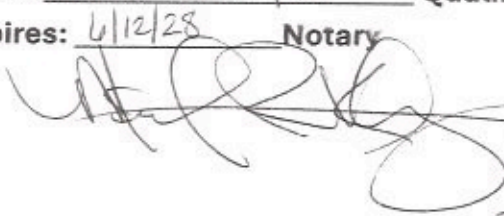

I, Robert (Bob) F. Walters, Jr. formally pledge the following to the residents of the 117th New York Assembly District if elected to serve as your representative:

1. Term Limits and Accountability: I commit to serving no more than four two-year terms (eight years) in the Assembly. Furthermore, I will actively lobby on the Assembly floor and publicly advocate for legislation to implement comprehensive, statewide term limits for all elected officials, ensuring fresh perspectives and genuine accountability.
2. Agricultural Advocacy: I will provide dedicated representation and robust advocacy for the agricultural community. I will champion policies both locally and in Albany that protect and enhance the economic viability of our farms, support sustainable practices, and address the unique needs of our growers and producers.
3. Sportsmen's Rights: I pledge to ensure the sportsmen's community, including hunters, anglers, and snowmobilers, receives stronger, dedicated representation. I will actively defend their established rights and traditions against unwarranted regulations and legislative actions that negatively affect their recreational activities.
4. Support for Seniors: I will be a committed and unwavering voice for the seniors in our district. My focus will be on advocating for policies that support their quality of life, access to affordable healthcare and prescription drugs, and reliable social services.
5. Opposition to Overreach: I will vigorously oppose governmental mandates that restrict the fundamental rights and choices of our citizens. This includes, but is not limited to, lobbying against mandates concerning energy choice (such as how we heat our homes) and restrictions on the right to legally protect one's home and family.
