TASTING NOTES

"Layered and expressive, with the structure to evolve for at least the next decade. Blackberry and black currant lead into dried hibiscus and tamarind, with some spice and worn leather underneath. Bright acidity keeps the wine lifted and energetic from start to finish."

ABOUT THE LABEL

A damaged satellite drifts above a distant planet. The search for a signal continues, but whatever waits below may already be beyond reach. The image draws on a real satellite that was part of a program headed by the mother of our artist, Dane Curley.
