REVIEWS AND TASTING NOTES

95

points

"An absolutely astounding rich blend that delivers a smooth entry as it glides throughout the drinking experience. Kirsh cordial, scorched earth, stony minerals and black raspberry flavors, combined with dried herbs and salty soil accents on the palate. Sip after sip, you are brought back to this rich, tension-filled bottling that deftly combines brightness with full throttle viscosity. This is seriously good stuff right now that is best enjoyed over the next 10 years."

"The front side of the nose on this blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 20% Merlot and 20% Syrah is very rich and dense, loaded with blackberry and black cherry, but there's a seriously rocky minerality that cuts that ripeness. The palate is very textural, as firm tannins open into flavors of dark berry and rugged earth atop a lingering acidity."

ABOUT THE LABEL

An interrupted television broadcast creates a fitting contradiction with the wine's name and the official message we are being asked to trust, even as the world around suggests otherwise.
