TASTING NOTES

"A Bordeaux style blend made primarily of Cabernet Sauvignon with some Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot added. Deep ruby red color. The wine's a little closed initially, so give it a good swirl or a short decant. As the wine opens up, on the nose you get blackberry, blueberry, spice, notes of violets, forest floor and cocoa. The palate follows with deep rich fruit, good acidity and fairly big tannins. Touch of dryness on the finish. You could crack open now for a juicy steak or ribs, but also have the patience to stash away for a few months or years to see it evolve into something even more balanced and expressive."

ABOUT THE LABEL

The view pulls back from the previous label's screen to reveal an old television in an empty room. Everything is under control...or so the screen would have us believe.
