THE CLUB ON THE CASTLEREAGH

Privacy Statement

Coonamble Bowling Club respects your privacy and is committed to protecting the personal information we collect and hold in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs).

We may collect personal information from members, guests, patrons, visitors, suppliers and other people who interact with the Club. This may include your name, address, contact details, date of birth, membership details, identification information, payment or transaction information, photographs or images, CCTV footage, visitor records, promotion or competition entries and other information you provide to us.

We collect and use personal information where reasonably necessary to:

- administer Club membership and visitor requirements;
- provide Club services and facilities;
- process bookings, functions, payments, promotions and competitions;
- communicate with members and patrons about Club activities, services and events;
- maintain the safety and security of our members, patrons, staff and premises;
- investigate incidents, complaints or breaches of Club rules;
- meet our legal and regulatory obligations, including requirements relating to registered clubs, liquor, gaming and other applicable laws; and
- manage the day-to-day operations of the Club.

Personal information may be disclosed to our employees, contractors and service providers where reasonably necessary for Club operations, and to government agencies, regulators, law enforcement bodies or other parties where required or authorised by law.

We take reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.

You may request access to personal information we hold about you or ask us to correct information that is inaccurate, incomplete or out of date.

If you have a question or complaint about how your personal information has been handled, please contact:
