AEGINA

Just 40 minutes from Athens, Aegina is the perfect first stop for island hopping. Famous for its pistachios and home to the ancient Temple of Aphaia, it offers a mix of culture, great food, and charming port views. Ideal for a short but full island experience.

AGISTRI

Agistri is small, green, and incredibly peaceful—ideal for swimming in clear waters, cycling through pine forests, and enjoying a slower pace. A great choice for a quiet escape that's still close to the mainland.

POROS

Poros is a calm, easygoing destination with a scenic harbor and pine-covered hills. The town is built right on the waterfront, offering a relaxed vibe, quality tavernas, and ideal conditions for anchoring. Perfect for a laid-back stop with just enough to explore.

HYDRA

Hydra is car-free, iconic, and full of character. Its stone mansions, artistic charm, and cliffside harbor make it one of the most elegant stops in the Saronic Gulf. A favorite for those who want beauty, history, and style in one place.

SOUNIO

Sailing past the Temple of Poseidon is unforgettable. Sounio is the perfect place to anchor, swim in deep blue waters, and watch the sun set behind ancient ruins. It's a magical way to start or end any cruise near Athens..
