August 17, 2025 - 20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Do you think I have come to give you peace on Earth? No, I tell you, but rather division.” LUKE 12:51

Many of us like to play it safe, not cause waves with our family and friends, especially when it comes to politics and religion. We don't want to cause any turmoil. However, many times this is at the expense of the truth. The truth being Jesus Christ. Too many people are misguided because they rely on their own limited human ability to reason and are not allowing faith in God to guide them. Form your conscience; take a stance for life, marriage, and religious liberty.

Thank You: When the world always seems sideways, then you have the opportunity to appreciate the people around you, their hearts, their love, their kindness, you realize that what you hear in the new is not all of reality. I had my knee replaced. The kindness from all of you, the meals, prayers, love, visits and hugs, make me so very thankful that we live here. I deeply and sincerely thank you, pray that God blessed us all and continues to watch over us. --Dawn Korynta
