"Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.'" LUKE 10:37

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other? The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know, or someone that looks different than you, or someone that has different beliefs than you, or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

From the Desk of Bishop John T. Folda, Diocese of Fargo

Dear friends,

We have all seen the heartbreaking story of the many people who died in a recent flash flood in Texas. And we have had our own recent losses in the tornadoes that struck North Dakota a few weeks ago. Every year we hear of disasters in our own country and abroad and the victims that are left behind, and this is a sobering reminder of the fragility of human life. Our first response should be one of prayer for those who died or were injured, but also for the family members who grieve such a terrible loss.

Another response, if possible, might be to offer any material help that we can. Just being there for family members can be a great comfort. Catholic Charities and other organizations assist with disaster relief and do a very good job of reaching out to victims wherever they are.

And finally, these tragic events are a reminder to all of us to be prepared. Our lives on this earth can be changed and even come to an end in an instant. Our Lord tells us, "You know neither the day nor the hour." Without being morbid or living in constant fear, we should be in a state of readiness to go to our Lord, who desires that all of us would abide with him in eternal life.

So, let us pray for those who have suffered and help where we can, but let us also keep our eyes always on the Lord.

God bless you,

- Bishop John T. Folda, Bishop of Fargo

Made for Greatness Men's Retreat: July 18-20-2025

Men, do you ever feel intimidated by prayer? You know it is important, but it's hard to maintain a regular habit of prayer that actually seems meaningful. Or, perhaps your prayer life is steady, but you also desire to grow in your ability to know the Father's voice more plainly and experience more deeply His love and guidance in your life. Whatever your experience of prayer is, the Made for Greatness Men's Retreat Personal Prayer: The Way of Receiving the Father's Love promises to open new avenues of meeting God in truly life-changing ways. One of the most prominent spiritual guides in the Church today, Fr. Boniface Hicks, OSB will lead us as sons of God to becoming masters of prayer.

*The Made for Greatness Men's Retreat will be held on July 18-20, 2025 at Maryvale Retreat Center. Details are available at www.fargodiocese.org/mfg-retreat.*

Art of Accompaniment Training: July 21-25, 2025

Has God placed on your heart a desire to help others know Him? Do people in your life (family, friends, coworkers, or even random people you meet) seem to gravitate toward you seeking your thoughts or insights on the complexities of their lives and especially their relationship with God? Perhaps you are a member of the clergy, a religious, or a church worker who is often in a role of leading others in their spiritual lives and you would like to know how you can do this even more effectively.

Then come to the Art of Accompaniment Training at Maryvale Retreat Center on July 21-25, 2025 to be formed by one of the most prominent spiritual formators in the country Fr. Boniface Hicks, OSB. Fr. Boniface founded the Institute for Ministry Formation out of his conviction that one of the greatest needs in the Church today is to have many more people skilled in guiding others along the way of perfection. The 5-day Art of Accompaniment Training will equip participants to be able to assist others as they seek to grow in their relationship with God. This can be taken either as a stand-alone course or as the first course within the larger Spiritual Direction certification offered by the Institute for Ministry Formation. Full details are available at www.fargodiocese.org/aoa.
