

The UVM Vermont Center for Children, Youth, & Families (VCCYF) and the Vermont Consultation & Psychiatry Access Program (VTCAP) present a lecture series:

When First-Line Interventions for Children's Psychiatric Conditions Don't Work: Practical Strategies for Primary Care Practitioners

INTERVENTIONAL STRATEGIES FOR YOUTH WITH PSYCHOTIC SYMPTOMS

November 11, 2025 @ 12:00noon, online

Steven Schlozman, M.D. Dhruv Shah, D.O.

TO REGISTER,

scan QR code below or go to link:

<https://redcap.link/lq796ybi>

SAVE THE DATE for upcoming presentations:

- ✓ Nov. 20, 2025 @noon: "Supporting Caregivers in Times of Youth Suicide Care Need" by Andrew Rosenfeld, M.D. and Greta Spotswood, M.D. offered by the Vermont Program for Quality in Healthcare (VPQHC)
- ✓ Feb. 10, 2026 @noon: "Interventional Strategies for Youth and Families with a History of Trauma" by Maya Strange, M.D.
- ✓ Dec. 9, 2025 @noon: "Talk to a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist" an open-topic panel with UVM VCCYF Child and Adolescent Psychiatrists
- ✓ March 10, 2026 @noon: "Talk to a Child and Adolescent Psychiatrist" an open-topic panel with UVM VCCYF Child and Adolescent Psychiatrists