- KABIRA BAY, is said to be the most beautiful spot on Ishigaki Island. The beauty of green, small islands lying in the emerald green sea, the region is undoubtably one of a kind. You will be taking a group picture with the back ground of Kabira Bay.

Lunch at the POZA Oba-San no Shokutaku Diner, we will be having Ishigaki Beef Hamburger plate with Yaeyama Soba.

TOUJIN BAKA (CHINESE GRAVE), in 1852, 400 laborers being shipped to California, who were supposed to work as mine workers for the Americans & British traders. Chinese rebelled against the cruel treatment they received from the British. The ship however became shipwrecked off the coast of Ishigaki and 380 Chinese unboarded. Many of them were killed by gunfire from the British pursuers, died by illness or committed suicide. Ishigaki islanders protected and provided shelter for them and furnished them with food. In 1971 a Toujin (Chinese) grave was made in the memory of the 128 people who perished in this foreign land.

MINEYA, Yaeyama Minsaori, its origins are said to have come from India. It is also said that the term for cotton girdle, “Mensa” transformed to become “Minsa”. The Minsa was a special gift presented by young women to men as a sign of the acceptance of love. The combination of 5 (itsu) and 4 (yo) checker patterns characterize this fabric, the women’s confession of love: “Love me forever” (ikuyo...itsuyo).
