The scene has been admired for centuries and is ranked among Japan's three most scenic views.

Amanohashidate View Land is the best point from which to view Ama no Hashidate (Bridge to Heaven). The line of pine trees visible from here are called the Hiriyukan (literally, “view of the flying dragon”), because they seem to be climbing into the heavens. We will take a cable car to Kasamatsu Park and enjoy the scenic view. You can try “Matanozoki”, if you look at Amanohashidate upside down through your legs, it appears to ascend to heaven.
