  - Registration fee covers lodging, transportation, meals, rec activities, & Bible study materials

- Campers are under the authority of the camp staff during their stay. They are expected to follow all camp rules, conduct themselves appropriately, and attend all scheduled events.
- Campers may not leave the grounds without an official request from a parent/guardian.
- Cell phones aren't allowed at camp. Calls can be made in the office for emergencies.
  - Manda will have her cell phone at camp. Feel free to contact her if you need to reach your child.
- Refunds from MSM are made cheerfully at the end of the camping season, minus a $40 fee.
- Manda will be the girls counselor for the week
- Team Colors announced a couple days prior to camp. Churches are divided up into around 9 teams. There are various competitions throughout the week, points are tallied and a team winner announced at the end of camp. Students are highly encouraged to bring clothing to match the team color assigned to wear during competitions.
- I encourage you to check out a few previous year's camp videos @ <https://www.msmstudent.com/campvideo> it will get you excited to go and show you the experience you will have. But also pay attention to clothing and activities to give you an idea of what to pack.
- I will be the girl's counselor for the week. Adults do not room with students. Students room with around 10 students. I do not get to select choice of housing; I will not know accommodations until check-in. It could be a cabin style where we walk to community bathrooms and showers. Or it could be in the new hotel where showers and bathrooms are all within the sleeping space.
