Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

God did not send his son into the world to condemn it. The cross is not a symbol of judgment — the cross is what mercy looks like when it is lived out. How will we bring the cross into our lives this week? How will we live the mercy which has saved us?

Monday:	Our Lady of Sorrows
Tuesday:	Sts. Cornelius, Pope, and Cyprian, Bishop, Martyrs

Devotions, Explained!

A litany is an ancient form of prayer incorporating repetitive refrains (often "hear our prayer" or "pray for us"). Litanies are used in a variety of liturgical settings and in both private and public acts of devotion.

Prayer of Love

Dear God,
Expand my heart in new ways
today,
to understand the love You have
for me,
to take that love deeply into
myself,
and to act from that love.
Amen.

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

One of my favorite movies is the 1991 comedy What About Bob? Bill Murray plays a troubled, paranoid hypochondriac named Bob Wiley who innocently but annoyingly hounds Dr. Leo Marvin, played by Richard Dreyfuss. Bob is paralyzed by his fear of, well, everything, and is convinced the psychologist can heal him. But Dr. Marvin's failed attempts to heal Bob end up driving the doctor to attempt to murder Bob. He fails. The surprise is that, having faced death head on, Bob is suddenly healed. He attributes his healing to Dr. Marvin for breakthrough "death therapy." In facing the cause of his deepest illness and dysfunction, Bob is healed.

Underneath this light-hearted comedy is a dead-serious resonance with this week's feast: the Exaltation of the Holy Cross. Christ is lifted up on the cross to force us to face the truth of sin and death. In that reckoning we find healing. Like Moses' snake on a pole, the cross says: this is what is causing your sickness – rebellion, disobedience, sin. Look at it! Don't run from it. Now seeing it exposed, we see life. We see our physician mercifully healing us. In this sense, we are all like Bob Wiley. The "death therapy" of the cross is our only hope for healing.

This week I invite you to "exalt the cross." If you don't have one in your house, get one. Use it for prayer. Gaze on it frequently. It teaches us to not be afraid. It heals us.

The Marthas leaders would like to thank everyone who attended or helped in any way with this year's Pie and Ice Cream Social. A special "thanks" to all the parishioners and Marthas who contributed the delicious pies and bakery along with those who provided items for the raffle baskets. Also, thanks goes to Laura Marizza and Janice Unger, each of whom donated an additional basket. To those who helped with the set-up of the tables, your assistance was appreciated. Father Josh, thank you for announcing the event at the end of Masses and for always being there to help us celebrate.

Our lucky winners this year were Pat Scubic (50/50 drawing), Rita Wise, Carmelita Collins, Ann Wise, Juli Micetich, and Renee Kwiatkoski.

Again, thanks to all for your help, support, and attendance. It truly takes every part of a parish to achieve a success, and you proved that!

The Marthas decided that what was taken in for the evening through freewill donations, 50/50, and basket raffles ($909.60) will go to the church for the repair of the school roof.
