Thank You Crane Charitable Funds!

Crane Company is a diversified global manufacturer of engineered industrial products. Crane Charitable Funds makes contributions to charitable organizations that provide direct assistance to underserved populations in the communities where Crane Company operates.

One of Crane Company's employees, Assumption parishioner Jim Dabulskis, entered our St. Vincent Meals program once again as a nominee to receive funds. We are happy to report that this month, Father Josh attended a reception hosted by the Crane Fund for Widows and Children, where he was presented with a check in the amount of $6,375 from Crane Charitable Funds to help support our mission of providing our St. Vincent Meals to those in need. We'd like to thank Crane Charitable Funds for their generosity and would also like to thank Jim for the nomination! These funds will be put to good use in helping us serve meals to the less fortunate in our area.

Live The Liturgy Inspiration of the Week

The rich man had a chance, every day of his life, to choose righteousness. But righteousness wasn't convenient for him. He discovered too late that the only time we have to follow God is now. Here. This moment.
Will we take our chance?

Gospel Meditation

Encourage Deeper Understanding of Scripture

I am embarrassed to admit that I frequently find myself dining and socializing with people who have millions and sometimes billions of dollars. I've eaten more caviar, lobster and wagyu steak than most people on the planet. I justify it by saying it's part of my job. But I have seven pairs of nice jeans and expensive shoes.

So it is rather uncomfortable to hear Our Lord say: "My child, remember that you received what was good in your lifetime, while Lazarus likewise received what was bad; but now he is comforted here, whereas you are tormented" (Luke 16:25). Fellow rich people (and if you're American, you're rich), do we not vehemently though quietly object to this parable's karma-esque reward system? Why bless the rich man just to curse him later? And curse Lazarus just to bless him later? So Americans go to hell, while Burundians and Afghans go to heaven? What is going on?

One clue is that the condemned rich man doesn't complain of injustice. Rather, he simply begs to help his brothers to repent. Of what? We don't know exactly. Perhaps another clue is that the rich man now seems more like the downtrodden Lazarus. He knows what it is to be hungry and thirsty, to be wounded in the gutter; that he deserved that, not fancy meals and clothes. Maybe the rich man finally understands how to receive true blessings, but it is too late for him. But not for me. Not for us.

— Father John Muir

Number of Donors: 164

The parishioners and CCD classes at Sacred Heart Church in Kinsman are starting their annual Veteran's Day card project. The first day will be on Sept. 21; it will end on Oct. 26. We've been doing this project for many years now. If anyone would like to bring in a signed card for a veteran (or two or three, or more!), it would definitely be appreciated. Please place your cards in the small tote which is located in Assumption's narthex. We deliver cards to the LaSalle and Manteno homes along with all the nursing/assisted living homes in Morris and Dwight. When we have extras, we stop by the VFW and American Legion in Morris and also drop off to other local groups. Our local schools have been involved, including Coal City, Gardner, and ICS in Morris. St. Lawrence and Reddick CCD classes are helping out also. You never know how something big or small will affect someone's life. It's the least we can do for the people who have done so much for us. Thank you for your help!

Sharing the Gospel

NoShare saw a poor man starving but did not share his food with him. Both men died. NoShare went to a place of punishment. He begged for water from the poor man who was in heaven, but got none. When ShareMuch saw a poor man, he took him to a homeless shelter. He bought food, drink, clothing, and blankets for everyone there. When ShareMuch died, God said, "When you shared with others, you shared with me. Welcome to heaven."
