Habitat for Humanity®
of Greater Charlottesville
Charlottesville | Albemarle | Greene | Louisa

Dear Friends of Foxfield,

When Foxfield Races named Habitat for Humanity of Greater Charlottesville their first 5-year philanthropic partner in 2021, we were thrilled by the possibilities of partnership in the years ahead. Now, in 2026, we are excited to embark on 5 more years of partnership!

Together, we share a commitment to bringing people from all walks of life together to gather and enjoy community spaces and fellowship - whether at the Foxfield Races or in Habitat's pioneering mixed-income neighborhoods, like the Southwood mobile home park transformation.

Foxfield's generous support has helped Habitat complete the first phase of Southwood and maintain our commitment not to displace residents. Yet, the ongoing collaboration goes well beyond a traditional charitable partnership. We work throughout the year to build together on the jobsite, introduce our families to well-paying careers in the equestrian field and spread the word about the need for more affordable housing.

Your support of the Fall Races helps make all of this possible for our neighbors, and we thank you.

Sincerely,

President and CEO

Steeplechase Horses

- All steeplechasers are Thoroughbreds whose lineage must be proven with official Jockey Club registration papers. Horses can begin steeplechase careers at age 3.
- Most steeplechasers competed (or still compete) on the flat. The ideal steeplechaser has speed, stamina, smarts and enough athletic ability to run and jump at the same time. In general, steeplechase horses are larger than their flat counterparts, but size is not a rule. Big horses tend to have more stamina, which is important. Also, horses trained for steeplechasing develop larger muscles across their backs – to help with the jumping.
- The best jumpers clear the fences in one long stride – much like a human hurdler jumps in track and field events.
- Almost all steeplechase trainers are based on private farms, where horses enjoy the outdoors while exercising and working toward their next racing date.
- It is not unusual to see steeplechase horses compete until age 10 and beyond. At age 14, timber horse Young Dubliner won three races in 2003.
- Steeplechase horses typically run six to eight times in a year. The season features no racing in January and February, plus a light summer schedule – assuring horses of lengthy vacations. Most “down time” is spent outdoors in fields. A steeplechase horse in the off-season is often dirty, hairy – and happy.
- After their steeplechase careers end, horses often become foxhunters, show horses or simply pleasure rides for their owners or trainers. Hall of Famers Flatterer and Zaccio found “second lives” as a dressage horse and a fox-hunter, respectively.

SAFETY:

Always a FIRST
PRIORITY

THE NATIONAL STEEPLECHASE ASSOCIATION

places its highest priority on assuring the safety of steeplechase athletes, both equine and human. The National Steeplechase Association, its race meets, and its horsemen undertake significant actions to assure a racing surface of the highest quality and take proactive steps to minimize the chances of injury. While accidents will occur, important actions have been taken to prevent them.

SOME OF THOSE PROACTIVE STEPS ARE:

The National Steeplechase Association maintains a standing Safety Committee that reviews all race-course incidents and recommends changes to the sport to assure the highest level of safety for horses and jockeys.

The NSA is a member of several regional and national racing organizations committed to race-course safety and accident prevention.

The NSA maintains a safety steward at every race meet.

Every horse in every race undergoes a prerace checkup by licensed, experienced equine veterinarians. The detailed checkups involve limb and joint inspections as well as a soundness examination.

Horses also are observed by veterinarians in the paddock, at the starting point, during the race, and after the finish.

The NSA was a leader in the horse-racing industry in instituting concussion testing for all jockeys.

The NSA requires race meets to have well-equipped equine and human ambulances available at all times during racing.

The NSA maintains a registry of horses who have been involved in incidents or have had cases of unsoundness. Known as a vet's list, the registry assures that a horse cannot race again until it has demonstrated that it has attained racing fitness and soundness.

On the recommendation of the Safety Committee, races for nonwinners are limited to no more than 10 starters. Other limits on race-field size and conditions also are considered regularly by the Safety Committee.

Also on the recommendation of the Safety Committee, some races are limited to experienced jockeys.

Race courses are maintained to promote the highest level of safety, and several courses have irrigation systems to assure favorable racing conditions.

NSA stewards are authorized to take necessary steps to assure safety on race days, including changes to the course because of weather or other conditions.

The NSA's National Fences have a nearly half-century record of safety, and the Safety Committee regularly considers improvements to them.

Medication rules are strictly enforced, and post-race testing of selected horses is conducted at all race meets.

LEADING STEEPLECHASE JOCKEYS

LEADING STEEPLECHASE JOCKEYS

FREDDIE PROCTER

Birthdate: Nov. 14, 1998.

Home: Coatesville, Pa.

2025 record: 96-15-11-10, $506,400.

The Sherborne, England, native, the leading apprentice of 2022, enjoyed a career-best season, tied for second overall in wins and fifth in earnings. He was also second in wins and purses over timber. He secured his first G1 with Proven Innocent in the $150,000 Beverly Steinman at Saratoga. He also scored with top 3YO Ethics in the Will O'Keefe Memorial. He capped off the season with a three-win day at Aiken Fall for trainer Arch Kingsley.

DAN NEVIN:

Birthdate: Mar. 22, 2001

Home: Cockeysville, Md.

2025 record: 76-14-5-7, $425,600.

The Kilkenny, Ireland, native, who piloted Vintage Vinnie to victory in the Maryland Hunt Cup in his first NSA mount in 2021, reached new heights in 2025, finishing among the leaders in both wins and earnings. He won on five of his first eight rides at the start of the season, then closed out the campaign by capturing a pair of stakes at Camden: the Hobkirk Hill (aboard Coutach) and the $150,000 Colonial Cup (Fil Dor) to secure his first career Grade 1. He added another stakes victory with Timetoshine in the $100,000 Life's Illusion Stakes at Colonial Downs.

EVAN DWAN

Birthdate: Apr. 4, 1997

Home: Reisterstown, Md.

2025 record: 105-13-10-15, $519,750.

In his second full NSA season, Tipperary native Evan Dwan locked down the title of leading apprentice. The 29-year-old had more mounts than any other jockey and was fourth in wins and among the top in earnings, becoming one of the most formidable competitors on the circuit. His accomplishments included two seconds and a third in Grade 1 competition with Zarak the Brave and Noble Anthem. Dwan rode most of his winners for trainer Tom Garner but also scored for Todd Wyatt, Kathy Neilson, and Cyril Murphy.

LEADING STEEPLECHASE JOCKEYS

GRAHAM WATTERS

Birthdate: Oct. 12, 1991.

Home: Reisterstown, MD.

2025 record: 108-26-13-24,
$1,256,150. 95-26-18-14, $986,300.

By winning his fourth riding title in five years, the Irishman joined an elite troupe to lock down at least that many crowns. The only jockey to earn $1 million in a single season (2024), Watters would likely have done so again but was injured during the final rich weekend of the year. He racked up nine stakes victories, including five straight aboard timber champ Keys Discount while riding first call for Jack Fisher, and a record fourth in the G2 Temple Gwathmey for now-retired Eclipse Award winner Snap Decision.

STEPHEN MULQUEEN

Birthdate: Feb. 14, 1993.

Home: Oxford, PA.

2025 record: 100-15-16-15,
$781,330.

Limerick, Ireland, native tied for second in wins and third in earnings. He recorded two G1 tallies, with Jimmy P (Jonathan Sheppard) and novice champion Swore (Lonesome Glory), while riding first call for trainer Keri Brion. The pair partnered for three G1s in 2024. He secured additional 2025 stakes with Swore (Aflac Supreme novice), Blue Creek (Jonathan Kiser novice), and Smart Uncle (Van Clief Memorial).

BERNARD DALTON

Birthdate: July 24, 1968.

Home: Camden, S.C.

2025 record: 80-9-11-10, $439,660.

Veteran reinsman from Mullagh in County Cavan, Ireland, had his best season since joining the NSA in 2004. The winningest active rider on the circuit, Dalton is on the cusp of reaching $6 million in purses, riding mostly for trainer—and wife—Kate.

Dalton was tied for second in victories and trailed only Graham Watters in earnings. He piloted Cool Jet to an Eclipse Award and Abaan to a G1 score over Snap Decision in Iroquois, and doubled in novice stakes with China Beach (Carolina Cup and Green Pastures).

LEADING STEEPLECHASE TRAINERS

JACK FISHER

Birthdate: June 18, 1963.

Home: Reisterstown, Md.

Champion Trainer: 2003-2004, 2007-2009, 2012-2019, 2021, 2024, 2025.

Earnings leader: 2004, 2008, 2014-2019, 2023-2024.

2025 record: 103-27-16, $1,229,500.

Sixteen-time champion trainer: 2003-2004, 2007-2009, 2012-2019, 2021, 2024-25.

Earnings leader: 2004, 2008, 2014-2019, 2023-2025.

Hall of Fame conditioner finished 2025 with four divisional titlists, including Eclipse Award winner Cool Jet, Keys Discount (timber), and Ethics and Cooper (tied for 3-year-old leader). One of only three trainers to record more than $1 million in annual NSA purses and has done so multiple times. Also trained Eclipse Award winners Snap Decision, Moscato, and Scorpiancer, plus Hall of Famer Good Night Shirt. Besides Grade 1 wins with Cool Jet, his other significant scores came with 2025 timber juggernaut Keys Discount, who was a perfect five for five in stakes.

LESLIE YOUNG

Birthdate: Sept. 4, 1972.

Home: Westchester, Pa.

2025 record: 136-17-26-18, $726,550.

Though she relinquished the title of leading trainer after three straight crowns, Young had a strong season, finishing second to Jack Fisher in victories and third in earnings. She also had the most starters of any conditioner. Relying on a large, versatile stable, including stakes winners The Butler Yates, Foxy Walk, and Wrestlingwithrae, Young scored with 14 different runners.

KERI BRION

Birthdate: May 7, 1991.

Home: Kenett Square, Pa.

2025 Record: 91-14-11-10, $788,150.

Fair Hill-based conditioner ran a busy barn of both flat runners and jumpers in her fifth year on circuit. Along with Jack Fisher and Leslie Young, she is the only conditioner to ever crack the million-dollar earnings mark. Brion captured three of the four NYRA Grade 1s in 2025 with Swore (Lonesome Glory), Historic Heart (A.P. Smithwick), and Jimmy P (Jonathan Sheppard), as well as other stakes with Swore (Aflac Supreme) and Blue Creek (Jonathan Kiser). NSA rider from 2016-2019 and longtime assistant to legendary Jonathan Sheppard. Went out on her own after Sheppard's retirement and won the 2021 Eclipse Award with Buttonwood Farm's The Mean Queen.

LEADING STEEPLECHASE TRAINERS

MARK BEECHER

Birthdate: Aug. 14, 1985.

Home: Whitehall, MD.

2025 record: 70-14-7-12, $393,000.

NSA jockey from 2010 to 2019, the Irishman was the sport's premier timber rider and captured two Maryland Hunt Cups. Earned his first victory in the historic race as a trainer last year with Road to Oz. Trained part time during his riding days, then made it full time and enjoyed his best season in 2025, finishing fourth in wins. Overall, he's saddled 67 winners, mostly over jumps, and is approaching $2 million in purses. His top steeplechasers include stakes winner Cracker Factory, along with Decisive Triumph, My Afleet, Frontline Citizen, and Invocation. Won stakes last year with Timetoshine ($100,000 Life's Illusion) and Master Seville (Pennsylvania Hunt Cup).

KATHERINE NEILSON

Birthdate: Aug. 11, 1966.

Home: Unionville, Pa.

2025 record: 98-13-16-13, $348,200.

Had more starters, winners, and earnings than in 2024, which was her best season in two decades. Accumulated $5.4 million in purses since 1991. Conditioned stakes winners over hurdles, but her specialty is timber. Led the NSA timber standings in wins and was second in earnings to Jack Fisher. Top horses include multiple stakes winner Young Dubliner, with whom she won the Maryland Hunt Cup, as well as Grade 1 winner Trebizond, Super Saturday, Mulahen, Raise A Storm, River Bed, Brinton Bridge, and Toughkenamon. Won the 2023 Maryland Hunt Cup with Withoutmoreado. Daughter of the late jockey-trainer Louis "Paddy" Neilson III; sister of trainer Sanna Neilson; mother of leading 2021 apprentice rider Skylar McKenna; and aunt of Parker Hendriks, the leading jockey of 2022.

Thomas Garner:

Birthdate: Nov. 25, 1990.

Home: Reisterstown, Md.

2025 record: 83-11-9-12, $458,600.

An NSA rider since 2017 and the earnings leader in 2021, Garner transitioned to training in 2023 and had a full stable by 2025, when he finished fifth in the standings. His big horse was Gill Johnston's Zarak the Brave, who finished second in the A.P. Smithwick and third in both the Jonathan Sheppard and Colonial Cup, all G1s. Overall, Garner found the winner's circle with nine different horses, including twice with Take Your Seat, owned by his wife, Devon Smith. As a rider, Garner won 59 races and earned $2.3 million. He was the regular pilot of Hudson River Farms' 2019 Eclipse Award winner Winston C and guided Buttonwood Farm's The Mean Queen to a pair of wins during her Eclipse Award-winning season.
