Harbor Kids

Looking for a meaningful way to give back to your church? By helping create a safe, secure, and loving space for our youngest members, you play a vital role in their spiritual journey. Volunteering is not only easy but incredibly rewarding. Join us and make an impact. Contact Cortni Rose at cortni.rose@denverumc.org.

Harbor Kids Worship & Small Groups are offered at 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. During the 10:00 hour, we have a time for activities that serve our community.

Nursery is provided for the little ones.

While Harbor Kids is available, families are encouraged to go to our Combined Service every fifth Sunday.

Leadership-Discipleship Experience

4:00 - 5:30 p.m. or 6:45 - 8:00 p.m. in the CORC

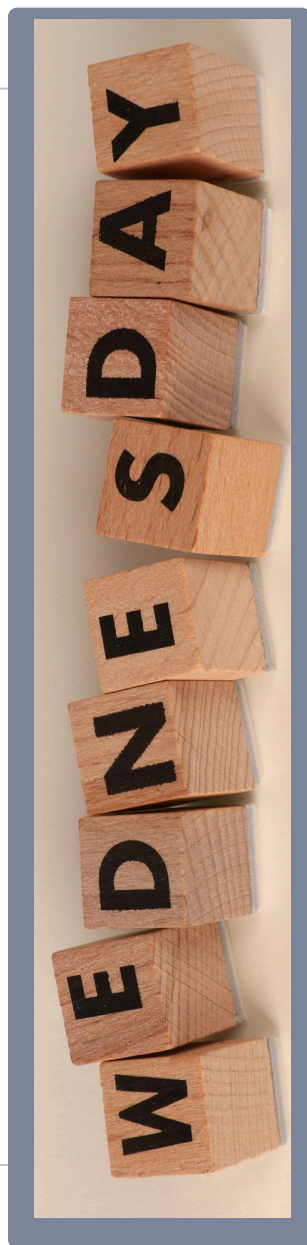

If you are a new believer or well on your path to Christian maturity, you are invited to be a part of this great experience. This is a ten-week journey designed to move beyond surface-level faith and into deep, life-changing transformation.

The Gospel of Matthew

6:45 - 8:00 p.m. in the Chapel

The study is designed to engage participants in conversation, allowing us to learn from one another. Please bring your Bible and an inquiring mind as we seek to discern how God is speaking to us today through Holy Scripture.

One note: For those who feel like they do not know the Bible well enough to come to an open study, please do not shy away. The point is for everyone to learn together, regardless of biblical knowledge.

Opportunities to Serve During Worship

are an integral piece of our Traditional Worship Service, therefore taking part in setting the appropriate tone of worship. Duties include entering in the Holy Spirit by lighting the altar candles, handing the Offering plates to the Ushers during service, and taking the Light of Christ out alongside the Pastor. Training sessions are available. This is designed for ages 8 years or older, but youth are encouraged to volunteer for community service hours!

Contact Staci Blackwell, stacigblackwell@gmail.com for info.

Chancel Choir

is a volunteer choir that provides musical and liturgical leadership on Sunday mornings during our Traditional Service and Special Services. Week after week the choir seeks to glorify God with music that moves the heart and soul with great variety and reverence. This group meets every Wednesday evening from 7:00 - 8:00pm in the Choir Room.

Contact LeAnn Callahan at leann.callahan@denverumc.org to learn more.

Communion Helpers

are volunteers who are in charge of preparing the elements for Communion Sundays, the first Sunday of each month, and/or Special Services as well. These persons also assist the pastors in administering the elements of Holy Communion, the consecrated bread and wine during service, making sure that there are enough elements for each congregational member.

If you would like to be a part of this ministry, contact LeAnn Callahan at leann.callahan@denverumc.org.

Opportunities to Serve During Worship

Handbell Choir

is a fun ensemble that performs once a month in the Traditional Service and during Special Services, as well. Practices are held on Thursday evenings from 7:00 - 8:00pm. Levels of musical knowledge range from beginner to advanced. Not only does this choir serve as a musical group, it also doubles as a wonderful time of fellowship.

Contact LeAnn Callahan,
leann.callahan@denverumc.org for details.

Praise Team

serves as the music band for our Contemporary Service held in the Family Life Center. This group is made up of a variety of instruments and is also considered a multi-generational praise team.

There is an audition process to anyone interested, not with the focus on perfection, rather on authentic worship. Each member must contain the correct mindset and heart for worship, glorifying the One who deserves all the honor and praise.

Contact Erin Shull at erin.shull@denverumc.org to get information to apply.

Opportunities to Serve the Congregation

Compassion Crew

is a ministry that allows us to make regular visits to church members and neighbors who are not able to get out as much as they used to. The ministry's focus is on making new friends, building relationships, and encouraging each other. The team meets monthly.

Contact Sara Lee,
sara.lee@denverumc.org for details.

Funeral Meals

In Christian love, a meal is provided for the family of a church member following a funeral service. Volunteers are called on a rotating basis to provide a dish. Currently, one team leader is needed. Responsibilities include making calls to a team for food from a set menu and being on-site the day of the meal to receive food, organize the meal and clean up.

Commitment is approximately three times per year and takes about six hours of time.

If you would like to be a part of this ministry, contact Wendi Sweet at wendi.sweet@denverumc.org.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH, FELLOWSHIP, AND SERVICE WITHIN THE CHURCH

Opportunities to Serve the Congregation

Harbor Ties

was created to help us stay connected through our various life events. The group sends exam packages to college students and provides new member welcome bags and gifts for new babies.

If you have an immediate family member who is deployed or a student in college, please email Wendi Sweet at wendi.sweet@denverumc.org.

To be a part of this team or to donate items for care packages, email Beth Joy at joysrus90@gmail.com.

You can also support this ministry with monetary donations online or by check with Harbor Ties on the memo line.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

meets the third Sunday of each month to crochet or knit prayer shawls to be prayed over and given to suffering neighbors. No experience needed!

Opportunities to Serve the Congregation

Prayer Community with God

is a unique ministry because it engages every Christian. Every person, every small group, every class, every worship congregation is called to prayer. Prayer is simply the spiritual name we give to talking with God. DUMC also has a dedicated Prayer Team that meets the first and third Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. in WAB 105.

God has called all of us to talk to Him both alone and with others.

Contact Susan Nickel,
snicke@bellsouth.net for Prayer Team information.

Contact Rosanne Kocher at rosannekocher@gmail.com to join.

Men's Alliance 'Trifecta' Tribe

is a group of men who meet Sunday evenings at 6:00 p.m. for a rugged workout and to share a time of devotion by the fire pit.

Contact Caleb Hendren at wchendren1@gmail.com for details.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH, FELLOWSHIP, AND SERVICE WITHIN THE CHURCH

Opportunities for Growth and Community

The Sisterhood

is a dynamic group for women of all ages, designed to provide on-going opportunities for fellowship. They meet every other month for breakfast and a short devotion, then break into groups to participate in one of several activities offered to accommodate individual interests and allow individual growth and learning.

See the website to register or contact Carol Brown at outreach@denverumc.org for details about the next event.

Walk to Emmaus

is a weekend experience for anyone wanting to delve deeper in their faith, encounter the living God, make new friends and help equip the local church by growing adult Christian disciples and leaders. Held at Camp Tekoa Foothills, you will hear 15 inspirational talks by both clergy and laity, enjoy fun activities related to the topics and share intimate worship opportunities with fellow campers. For many, this time has been transformative in their lives, their relationships and most of all - their faith. Walks are held each Spring and Fall. Couples are encouraged to attend at the same time, if possible.

For more information, please contact Wendi Sweet at wendi.sweet@denverumc.org or call the church office at 704-483-1601.

Women's Alliance

ROOTED IN CHRIST, STRENGTHENED BY FIRE

Women's Alliance is more than a weekly gathering at Denver United Methodist—it's where strength is built, relationships are forged, and faith becomes action.

Our P15 Tribe of women of all ages meets weekly for a rugged outdoor workout and real world devotion around the fire. The 30 minute workout is a way to build community. Our 30 minute devotion time bonds us, lets us be vulnerable, and reinforces that we do not struggle alone.

to see how you can help.

OPPORTUNITIES TO SUPPORT OUR COMMUNITY

Community Garden

provides fresh produce to food-insecure families through our Backpacks for Kids program, Christian Ministries, Corner Table Soup Kitchen, our Little Pantry in the parking lot, and other ministries. Volunteers are invited to plant, maintain, harvest and distribute the produce.

Contact Matt Edwards, mredwards4410@gmail.com to learn of opportunities to serve through our garden.

Denver United Methodist Missional Network

is a group of volunteers from local churches who meet monthly to fill the needs of our neighbors. They complete home repairs, host children's camps and Community Fun Days, provide food for struggling families at Christmas, and so much more.

To be a part of these opportunities to serve, contact Denzil Bell at denzilmbell@gmail.com.

East Lincoln Christian Ministries

is our partner and neighbor, and they provide much needed help to struggling families through crisis assistance, regular food distributions, free tax assistance, home meal deliveries, and other services.

They are funded through clothing and furniture/household goods sales, their annual golf tournament, and through donations from churches and individuals. Volunteers may work in the clothes closet or furniture store, or pick up donated furniture or food from grocery stores. Volunteers are also needed to deliver home meals to neighbors unable to shop or cook for themselves.

Contact Laura Moore, elcm2@att.net for details.

First Thursday Lunch

is held in the FLC the first Thursday of each month (Sept-May). Volunteers are needed to "pick chicken", to help serve during the lunch, and to donate homemade desserts. All proceeds help children in our community, mostly through requests of Lincoln County Schools Social Workers.

Contact Roger Welke at rdwelke.rw@gmail.com.

Frugal Friends

is an opportunity to meet with neighbors facing economic crises to discuss budgeting, money saving tips and local resources available, while paying the bill to alleviate the crisis.

Contact Carol Brown,
carol.brown@denverumc.org to help.

Furnish-a-Future

allows community members to donate excess furniture and household goods to be given to neighbors leaving domestic abuse, homelessness, or other situations that have left them with little or no furniture or means to purchase it.

Contact Robin Hood at FAF@denverumc.org to help.

Guardian Ad Litem Advocates

are trained volunteers who are appointed, along with a Guardian ad Litem attorney, to investigate and determine the needs of abused and neglected children. They seek to serve the best interests of these children by digging for details in a case, collaborating with other participants, recommending what's best for a child by writing court reports, empowering the child's voice, and staying vigilant by constantly monitoring the case. They keep all information confidential.

Contact Lilly Fostvedt, lfostvedt@yahoo.com, for details.

Harbour Health

offers free pregnancy tests and ultrasounds, makes referrals to doctors, attorneys, and other supporting agencies, and provides parenting/life skills classes and post abortion support. Volunteers are trained to teach classes and work with clients, and assist with fundraising efforts.

Contact Ashely Canipe, csd@heartbeatspcc.org for more info.

Helping Hands Community Service Group

is a local outreach ministry started at DUMC, with compassionate, community-wide volunteers and organizations focused on serving others in and around Lincoln County. Some ministries were formed within Helping Hands to meet specific needs, e.g., the Building and Repair Team, Furnish a Future, and Frugal Friends. Others are included as community partners, e.g., Hesed House, DSS Foster Care Program, and Soul to Soul Outreach. All have a place at the table. The group meets monthly to discuss local needs and to share resources and opportunities to make a real difference to our neighbors.

Haven of Hope International believes that every child has a destiny to fulfill. Without family support, that's nearly impossible, especially for an orphaned child who has experienced abuse, abandonment, and poverty. Haven of Hope, Int. works to equip these children with skills for success; to change the orphan's life from struggling to thriving. Our international ministry focus, Operation Smile Home for Children, is supported through HOHI.

For more information contact Jeff Basik at jpbafa@aol.com or visit https://havenofhopeintl.org/about-us/.

Henderson Settlement Mission Team

travels each year to the Appalachian mountains of SE Kentucky. The 1600 acre campus is part of the Redbird Missionary Conference of the UMC. Help is needed repairing houses, working in the food pantry, thrift shop, youth center, and much more!

Contact Wally Mlynarski at wzm.fish@gmail.com for information about the 2026 trip.
