SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

THE CATHOLIC GESTURE THAT IS MORE ANCIENT THAN THE BIBLE YOU HOLD, BUT EVERYONE RUSHES THROUGH IT

Every Sunday, Catholics do something so ancient that it existed before the New Testament was written ...

before the Gospels were compiled ...

before Saint Paul wrote a single letter.

A gesture older than most of the Bible itself. Yet we rush through it without thinking. It's the Sign of the Cross.

Before Scripture, there was the Sign

The early Christians didn't have bound Bibles. They didn't have printed missals. Many couldn't read. But they had one thing they never forgot: The Sign of the Cross was their identity. Tertullian wrote in the year 200 A.D.:

"At every step, when we enter or leave, when we eat or drink ... we trace the Sign of the Cross."

This was decades, even centuries, before the New Testament existed in the form we know today.

When soldiers arrested Christians, the sign betrayed them. When martyrs died, it marked their bodies. When parents blessed their children at night, it was the sign they traced. Long before Christians carried the Bible, they carried the Cross on their bodies. What you did in two seconds meant everything to the early Church.

The Sign of the Cross is not a Catholic greeting.

It is a declaration of war. It proclaims:

- The Trinity
- The Incarnation
- The Crucifixion
- The Resurrection
- The victory of Christ over hell
- And your belonging to Him.

You cannot make this gesture casually.

- Heaven recognizes it.
- Hell fears it.
- Angels honor it.
- Demons flee from it.

The problem is not that we don't know it, the problem is that we don't think it.

We rush: In the name of the Father and the Son... as if we're late for a bus.

But the early Christians made it slowly, deliberately, reverently, because to them, it was a shield.

A priest once said: "If you understood the Sign of the Cross, you would never rush it again."

Think of this next time

When your hand rises to your forehead, you touch the Mind of Christ.

When it comes to your heart, you touch the Sacred Heart.

When it crosses your shoulders, you carry the Cross with Him.

This is not a routine. It is a relic of the first Christians, a tradition older than the bound Bible you hold. Make it with intention. Make it with faith. Make it as the early Church did. Because the sign of the Cross is not just a gesture, it is a proclamation of who you belong to.

CONFRATERNITY OF CHRISTIAN MOTHERS & LADIES GUILD

Serving the Women of Holy Family Since 1887

Heavenly Father, Author of all time and eternity, we come before You at the threshold of this new year with grateful and hopeful hearts. We thank You for the blessings of the year now passing and place ourselves entirely in Your providential care.

Pour out Your abundant blessings upon our families and friends. May our homes be sanctuaries of Your peace, where love grows deeper and wounds are healed through the grace of forgiveness.

We pray for Your Holy Church—for our Holy Father, Pope Leo, for our bishops and priests, and for all the faithful throughout the world. Strengthen those who proclaim Your Gospel, and renew the hearts of all who serve You.

Grant wisdom to the leaders of nations, that justice may flourish and true peace take root in every land. Extend Your merciful hand to those burdened by poverty or suffering, that they may find relief and know they are not forgotten.

And Father, welcome into Your eternal rest all who have died this past year, and prepare the souls of those whom You will call home in this new year.

As we step forward into the unknown days before us, be our constant guide—and may this be a year in which we grow ever closer to You and to one another.

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

Thanks to all who attended our Christmas celebration yesterday. We enjoyed a wonderful pot luck, and fun gift exchange, fellowship and humor as the seminarians, husbands and Fr. Michael and Fr. Daniel entertained us during a do-not-laugh game.

Our 2026 calendar will be sent out via email this week. We will have another busy year.

We want to thank all of the Confraternity members and the parishioners for your support in 2025.

Our Christian Mothers Mass is February 22nd at 11:00. Please join us in front of Our Lady's Altar. Please bring husbands and family to join us and wear your sash and pin.

Sashes are available if you haven't yet bought one for $5. Saint Gerard blessing is following the Mass for expectant mothers and those praying to conceive.

Our February meeting will be the 21st, after the 9:00am Mass in the Undercroft. We will also be cooking for the Chicken Noodle Dinner and could use some potato peelers and help setting up for dinner.

Wishing all a productive, healthy and faith-filled year.
