You can give hope to an abused child

BATON ROUGE, La. – The storm has passed, but the need for CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) volunteers is more urgent than ever. CASA children have already been traumatized by abuse and neglect and now face increased anxiety because of Hurricane Ida. We understand that not everyone can become a volunteer due to the challenges of Hurricane Ida, or COVID, but if you are able to volunteer and in search of a meaningful opportunity, this could be the one for you!

Capital Area CASA Association currently has 60 abused children waiting for an advocate to speak for them.

The first step to becoming a CASA volunteer is to attend one of the following 30-minute virtual orientation sessions:

- Monday, September 13 at 10 am
- Tuesday, September 21 at 5 pm
- Wednesday, September 29 at 12 pm
- Tuesday, October 5 at 3:00 pm
- Saturday, October 16 at 10 am
- Monday, October 18 at 5:30 pm
- Thursday, October 28 at 11:30 am
- Tuesday, November 2 at 2:30 pm
- Saturday, November 13 at 10 am
- Wednesday, November 17 at 3:30 pm
- Monday, November 22 at 11 am
- Tuesday, November 30 at 12 pm
- Saturday, December 4 at 10am
- Tuesday, December 7 at 12:30 pm
- Thursday, December 16 at 5 pm
- Monday, December 20 at 10 am
- Wednesday, December 29 at 4:30 pm

CASA is accepting people into its next in-person volunteer training class and virtual classes will continue. To register for an orientation volunteers can visit our web site at casabr.org and click on volunteer at the top or email us at volunteer@casabr.org with any questions.

The mission of Capital Area CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Association is to advocate for timely placement of abused and neglected children in permanent, safe, and stable homes.
