FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Capital Area CASA welcomes new board

BATON ROUGE, La. – Capital Area CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Association is pleased to welcome its 2022 Board of Directors.

CASA’s executive committee members include Rob Woosley, chair; Bebe Landry, vice chair; Angella Landry, secretary; and Kathy Persac, treasurer. Newly elected to the board are Dawn Gajan, Elizabet Harper, Jenny Kurz, Brennan “Bea” McNamee, Joffree Meek, and Steve Strohschein. Returning members include Mary Jane Dillenberger, Chester Burnett, Hannah Calandro, Jeff Calmes, Jan Cassidy, Chavanne C. Debetaz, David Faulk, Brad French, Machaela Golden, Roy Hebert, Tamara Mayo, Chris McGhee, and Patrick Michaels.

CASA volunteers advocate for abused and neglected youth living in foster care to help them reach safe, permanent homes. Volunteers are needed for CASA to provide an advocate for every child who needs a voice. Currently there are over 70 children who are in need of a CASA volunteer.

No special background is required. The first step to getting involved is to attend a 30-minute virtual informational session. To register for an orientation volunteers can visit our web site at casabr.org and click on volunteer at the top or email volunteer@casabr.org with any questions.

The mission of Capital Area CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocate) Association is to advocate for timely placement of abused and neglected children in permanent, safe, and stable homes.
