Key facts of your adventure

Region: Munich, Upper Bavaria and Tyrol

Main character: A mix of high culture, genuine alpine lifestyle, and true alpine winter experience

Length: 5 days and a half

For: Couples; small groups

Suitable for honeymooners? Absolutely

Best time: December - April

Day 1 - Munich : the splendid royal residence city at the feet of the Alps

Highlights

- Arrival in Munich; after the VIP airport pick-up, you will be transferred to one of Munich's splendid luxury hotels
- For dinner, you will continue to enjoy highest levels of hospitality, with a visit at a 1- or 2- Michelin star restaurant in Munich
- As an alternative option, you can also skip the star-dinner and enjoy another example of highest sophistication at Munich's beautiful classic opera house

Optional:

- Opera tickets or 2-Michelin star dinner

Day 2- Time to visit one of the most iconic castles: In privacy

Highlights

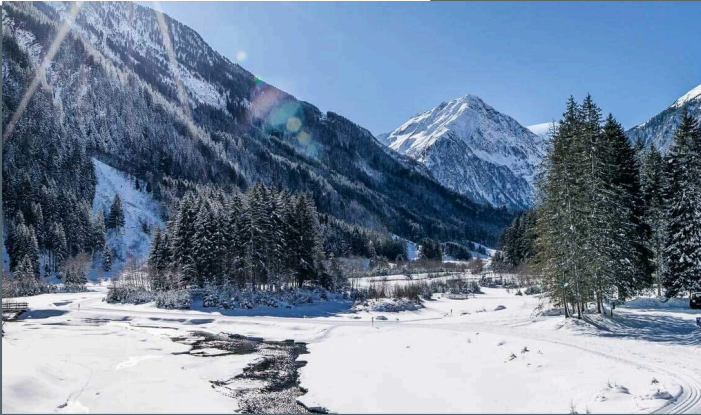

- Transfer to Neuschwanstein Castle, a good 90min south-west of Munich. While the castle and its surroundings are already without comparison, the fact that you can have this alone (!) makes this visit nothing but outstanding
- Continue to visit Füssen, a beautiful old town at the foothills of Neuschwanstein, also with a private guide
- Spend the afternoon and the night in a beautiful spa hotel near Füssen

Day 3- Creating and tasting alpine lifestyle

Highlights

- This day, you have the chance to experience an important part of alpine tradition, namely that of crafting spirits or gin for yourself. For this, we transfer over the border from Bavaria/Allgäu to Tirol.
- Afternoon transfer to a beautiful high-valley in Tyrol, which is surrounded by mountains over 3,000m in altitude.
- Check in an 5 star hotel in this beautiful valley and just enjoy life

Days 4 and 5: Classic winter sports in pristine winter-wonderland

Highlights

- For the next two days, you have a lot of time and serenity to just enjoy. You can
- try out cross-country skiing
- sledging / tobogganin
- or
- just enjoy the spa amenities in the hotel.
- Very special: We recommend that, weather permitting, you try out a hot-air balloon ride during one half of these two days. The serenity and scenery that you experience there will last the rest of your life. As you will be in the center of the Alps, the spot is ideal for fantastic views.

Day 6: Transfer back to Munich or Innsbruck

Optional:

- VIP airport services
- VIP transfer
