

Lorimers Complaints Policy and Procedure

Clients Complaints Procedure

We are committed to providing a high-quality legal service to all our clients. When something goes wrong we need you to tell us about it. This will help us to improve our standards. We deal with all complaints fairly, promptly and at no extra cost to you.

1. What is a complaint?

A report by a client that their expectations of what they consider to be a good service have not been met.

2. Making a complaint

You can register a complaint with the firm's Client Care Partner, Ms Aleesha Ladwa. You can write to Lorimers at the following address 25-26 West Street, Buckingham, MK18 1HF or by email at a.ladwa@lorimers-solicitors.co.uk. In the first instance, we'd prefer if you write to us with full details of your complaint so that we have a good understanding of the issues being highlighted.

3. What Will Happen Next?

We will acknowledge your complaint within seven days which allows for any postal delays and notify you who will be handling your complaint.

We will record your complaint in our central register and open a file for your complaint. We will conduct a full investigation and an independent review of the matter.

We aim to respond in full within 28 days. However, if the complaint is of a more complex nature, we will require more time, but we will let you know when you will receive a full response. We may also invite you to meet with the Supervisor to gather more information and resolve the matter.

We will reply to you, usually in writing following the outcome of the review of the complaints investigated.

If you remain dissatisfied with the outcome, or the way the complaint has been handled, you may write to the Managing Partner, Mr K Pandya, also at the address above, who will make such further investigations as are necessary.

We would generally aim to do this within 14 days. The Managing Partner will review your complaint within 14 days.

The Managing Partner will inform you of the conclusions and any alternative proposals to resolve the complaint.

If still unresolved at this stage, you may take the complaint to the Legal Ombudsman or, in accordance with the Alternative Dispute Resolution Regulations to an Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Scheme Provider. We will issue a final letter advising you of this.

LEGAL OMBUDSMAN

The Legal Ombudsman is the independent body established by the Office for Legal Complaints under the Legal Services Act 2007 to deal with complaints against Solicitors.

The Legal Ombudsman may:

- Investigate the quality of professional service supplied by a solicitor to a client.
- Investigate allegations that a solicitor has breached rules of professional conduct.
- Investigate allegations that a solicitor has unreasonably refused to supply a professional service to a prospective client
- Investigate allegations that a solicitor has persistently or unreasonably offered a professional service that the client does not want

Before it will consider a complaint the Legal Ombudsman generally requires that the firm's internal Complaints Procedure (outlined above) has been exhausted. If the Legal Ombudsman is satisfied that the firm's proposals for resolving a complaint are reasonable, it may decline to investigate further. You will have to bring your complaint to the Legal Ombudsman within 6 months of receiving a final response from us about your complaint and 1 year from the date of the act or omission, giving rise to the complaint. Alternatively, 1 year from the date you should reasonably have known there are grounds for complaint.

The Legal Ombudsman's address and contact details are:

PO Box 6806, Wolverhampton, WV1 9WJ; telephone, 0300 555 0333;
website, www.legalombudsman.org.uk; or email enquiries@legalombudsman.org.uk.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION SCHEMES

Alternative complaints bodies such as ProMediate and Small Claims Mediation exist which are competent to deal with complaints about legal services should both you and our firm wish to use such a scheme.

However, we don't currently agree to use this Alternative Dispute Resolution service in view of the availability of the independent Legal Ombudsman Service established under the Legal Services Act 2007. We are bound by our Regulatory Code to comply with the Legal Ombudsman.

SRA

The Solicitors Regulation Authority can help if you are concerned about our behaviour. This could be for things like dishonesty, taking or losing your money or treating you unfairly because of your age, a disability or other characteristic.

Visit their website to see how you can raise your concerns with the Solicitors Regulation Authority.
