Preparing for the Reading of Scripture

Amy Cauble

Let us pray,

God of newborn cries and shouts of justice,

you proclaim the good news of God-with-us from all corners of creation.

As we turn to our scriptures, may the words inspire us to dream of a world where hope, peace, joy, and love thrive among us.

Amen.

Reading: Numbers 6:22-27

Amy Cauble

The Lord spoke to Moses, saying: Speak to Aaron and his sons, saying, Thus you shall bless the Israelites: You shall say to them,

The Lord bless you and keep you;

the Lord make his face to shine upon you, and be gracious to you;

the Lord lift up his countenance upon you, and give you peace.

So they shall put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.

Word of God. Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

How ma - jes - tic is your name in all the earth!

Reading: Galatians 4:4-7

Madi Crutchfield

When the fullness of time had come, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law, in order to redeem those who were under the law, so that we might receive adoption as children. And because you are children, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, “Abba! Father!” So you are no longer a slave but a child, and if a child then also an heir, through God.

Word of God. Word of Life.
 Thanks be to God.

1 What child is this, who, laid to rest, on Mar-y's lap is sleep-ing?
2 Why lies he in such mean es - tate where ox and ass are feed - ing?
3 So bring him in - cense, gold, and myrrh; come, peas-ant, king, to own him.

Whom an - gels greet with an-thems sweet while shep-herds watch are keep - ing?
Good Chris-tian, fear; for sin-ners here the si - lent Word is plead - ing.
The King of kings sal - va - tion brings; let lov - ing hearts en-throne him.

This, this is Christ the king, whom shep-herds guard and an-gels sing;
Nails, spear shall pierce him through, the cross be borne for me, for you;
Raise, raise the song on high, the vir - gin sings her lul - la - by;

haste, haste to bring him laud, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
hail, hail the Word made flesh, the babe, the son of Mar - y!
joy, joy, for Christ is born, the babe, the son of Mar - y!

Text: William C. Dix, 1837-1898

Music: GREENSLEEVES, English ballad, 16th cent.

Reading: Philippians 2:5-11

Bruce Kraus

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
who, though he was in the form of God,
did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death— even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus
every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord,
to the glory of God the Father.

Word of God. Word of Life.

Thanks be to God.

The assembly stands in body or spirit.

...AND EVERY TONGUE CONFESS THAT Jesus Christ is Lord, to the GLORY OF GOD the Father.

Gospel: Luke 2:15-21

Deacon Sue

The Holy Gospel according to Luke
Glory to you, O Lord.

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

After eight days had passed, it was time to circumcise the child; and he was called Jesus, the name given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

This is the Gospel of the Lord
Praise to you, O Christ.

Prayers of Intercession

Bruce Kraus

United with the great cloud of witnesses throughout the ages, we pray for the church, the world, and all who are in need.

The assembly kneels or sits for prayer.

Guide your church to confess that Jesus is Lord. Fill us with wonder at the good and saving news of Jesus. May we treasure your words and meditate upon them, that we reveal your glory to the world with humility and hope. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Your name, O God, is majestic in all the earth. You set the moon and stars in their courses. You are mindful of every work of your hand: flocks and cattle, birds and fish, seas and fields. Make us wise stewards of your creation. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Bless the nations with your grace and peace. Inspire and uphold treaties, cease-fires, and international agreements that seek to calm strife between nations. Shield all those who work to protect vulnerable populations from exploitation or danger. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

We cry, “Abba! Father!” as we seek your loving care in times of need. Heal those wounded by hurtful words. Console all who are weighed down by depression and anxiety. Call by name any who feel unloved, misunderstood, or rejected. Heal the sick. We pray especially for:

- Gerry; Keren and family; Jeff.
- Roger and the Boyer family; Dave; Robin and Cathy.
- Byron; Kathryn; Ray; Todd.
- Flossie; Jim and Sharon; Charlie; Alex; John.

Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

Reveal yourself to us in the fullness of time, O God. Give us gratitude for what has been and hope for what is to come. Grace us with your presence during transitions: new jobs or schools, new homes, new diagnoses, or new relationships. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

With thanksgiving, we remember all the saints who proclaimed the name of Jesus in life and who now rest in glory. Show us our inheritance as adopted heirs of eternal life. Hear us, O God. Your mercy is great.

In the company of your saints we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your eternal mercy and love; through Jesus Christ our Savior and Lord.
Amen.

The assembly stands in body or spirit.

Offering Prayer

Bruce Kraus

Let us pray,

Holy God, we bring our gifts and offerings to you

because the voices of the prophets remind us of something bigger, something greater than any system this world offers us.

We believe when we trust you with our resources,

the kin(g)dom of God comes much closer to reality on earth.

Help us steward these gifts to create abundant life and love.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Deacon Sue

Lord, remember us in your Kingdom and teach us to pray:

Our Father in heaven,

hallowed be your name,

your kingdom come,

your will be done,

on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins

as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial

and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,

and the glory are yours,

now and forever.

Amen.

Dismissal

Deacon Sue

What a gift to be present at the beginning of new life.
God, incarnate, stepped out of heaven to come as an infant, reminding us all that new life is possible in the most difficult of times.
As we go forth from this place,
may we see present possibilities,
not just distant dreams.
May we lift up our gratitude
that on that quiet night beneath the noise of the empire,
Christ was born, not in power but in vulnerability.
We carry the name of Jesus Christ with us.
Thanks be to God.
