Results of Lenten Fish Fry Series

We again want to thank all of you who participated in some way with the Fish Fry Series that was held this Lenten Season. We had a great turnout from the community in support of those who are in need of assistance. We cleared almost $2,993 in combined proceeds from the two Fish Frys and sale of Baked Goods. Laura's team sold over $300 in cookies, brownies, pies, cakes, etc. The cashiers, servers, fryers, cooks, setup and cleanup crews combined together to bring in $2,680. Our Fellowship Hall was filled with people of all ages, between friends, families and community guests.

The intended use of these proceeds is to benefit ministries in our community by distributing funds to our homeless sandwich ministry, Amy's Blessing Bag ministry and to other community services such as Family Promise and Southeastern Synod Disaster Response Committee. Your Council will report on the amounts given to each of these in the near future. Thank you for showing up and helping make this a huge success.

In Scripture Today

John 11:1-45

The church has seen in this last great Johannine sign a picture of baptism: we too were dead, but the word of Christ has called us from death and restored us to life in the Spirit. Thus Lent is our annual emerging from the grave, our helping to unbind one another for vibrant life together.

Ezekiel 37:1-14

Christians have seen also in Ezekiel's vision a picture of the resurrection of the dead at the end of time. Both now and at the end we rise up in response to the word of the Lord. Through the power of the Spirit's breath, baptism begins our new life, a life that will never end.

Romans 8:6-11

In the last of our four Lenten readings from Romans, Paul uses the language of death and life to describe the radical nature of the effect of the indwelling of Christ's Spirit. We are now dead to sin, and the new life of Christ is already experienced here and now.
