In Scripture Today

Matthew 21:1-11

Holy Week begins with a palm procession and the proclamation of Jesus' entry into Jerusalem from the gospel of Matthew. Christ enters the assembly now, just as he did then, and we praise his presence among us. "Hosanna" is now our song.

Matthew 26:14—27:66

Twice each Holy Week we hear the entire story of the betrayal, arrest, trials, abuse, and crucifixion of Jesus. Since it is Sunday, we listen to Matthew, the synoptic gospel of this year.

Isaiah 50:4-9a

Christians have seen in the Servant Songs descriptions of Jesus Christ. The reading imagines Jesus himself as describing his ill treatment, while affirming his innocence and his trust in God.

Philippians 2:5-11

We join with Christians of the first century in a creedal poem: Christ humbled himself to death, and God has raised him as Lord. The ancient song is a summary, not only of our baptismal faith, but also of the Holy Week which has begun.
