In Scripture Today

John 4:5-42

Since at least the fourth century, the narrative of Jesus and the Samaritan woman has been used to explicate Christian baptism. Christ himself both provides and is the living water. In Lent we join with the Samaritan woman, seeking the living water of Christ and telling our neighbors of the one who quenched our thirst.

Exodus 17:1-7

The narrative of Moses striking the rock is set as a parallel to the story of the Samaritan woman at the well. In both, God provides miraculous water. Like the Israelites, we too are journeying towards the water of life, quarreling along the way, yet requiring what only God can give. God is our water.

Romans 5:1-11

The lectionary continues its Lenten readings from Romans. The passage for this Sunday, with its strong language about sinners, is appropriate on the day that we consider the quarreling Israelites, the five-times-married Samaritan woman, and ourselves.
